JAMES BROWN—REPRESENTATIVES OF.

MARCH 13, 1838.

Read, and the resolution concurred in by the House.

Mr. EVERETT, from the Committee on Indian Affairs, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Indian Affairs, which was instructed by a resolution of this House of the 2d January, 1838, to inquire into the expediency of allowing interest on the amount of a claim granted to the legal representatives of James Brown, by an act of Congress of the 30th June, 1834, report :

That the facts on which the claim was allowed appear in the report of the Committee on Indian Affairs of the 14th January, 1834 ; (House Doc. No. 175.) That, at the 1st session of the 24th Congress, a bill was reported (No. 263) in favor of the representatives of William Anderson, accompanied by a report of said committee, referring to the above report, No. 175, for the facts in the case ; and that at the 2d session of said Congress, said bill, on full debate, was rejected. The committee acquiescing in that decision, consider the question of interest as put at rest ; they, therefore, recommend the adoption of the following resolution :

Resolved, That interest on the amount of a claim granted to the legal representatives of James Brown, by an act of Congress of the 30th June, 1834, ought not to be allowed.
