TENNESSEE

Westley A. Ketron*

Table of Contents

I. Legislative And Regulatory Developments ............................................. 274
II. Judicial Developments ...................................................................... 274

---

* Westley A. Ketron is an associate at Steptoe & Johnson PLLC and practices in the firm’s Charleston, West Virginia office. Westley is licensed in Tennessee and West Virginia and concentrates his practice in the area of energy law.
Introduction of Oil and Gas Development

This article provides an update of the developments in the oil and gas law in the State of Tennessee from August 1, 2019 through July 31, 2020. This article focuses on major legislative and regulatory enactments as well as developments in the common law.

I. Legislative And Regulatory Developments

During the relevant time period of this update, there were no notable Legislative and Regulatory Developments involving the oil and gas industry.

II. Judicial Developments

During the relevant time period of this update, there were no notable Judicial Developments involving the oil and gas industry.