CIVILIZATION OF THE INDIANS.

LETTER

FROM

THE SECOND AUDITOR OF THE TREASURY,

TRANSMITTING

A statement showing the amount of money annually disbursed for the civilization of the Indian tribes, &c.

MARCH 2, 1843.

Submitted to the House by the chairman of the Committee on Indian Affairs, and ordered to be printed.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Second Auditor's Office, November 21, 1842.

SIR: Herewith I transmit a statement showing the amount of money annually disbursed out of the fund appropriated by the act of the 3d March, 1819, for the civilization of the Indian tribes, from the date of the act down to the 8th of February, 1842.

This statement has consumed a great deal of time and labor in its preparation, and furnishes all the information called for by you which the records and papers of this office afford.

I have the honor to be, respectfully, your obedient servant,

W. B. LEWIS.

HON. JOHN C. SPENCER,
Secretary of War.

Statement of expenditures made under the act, of the 3d March, 1819, making provision for the civilization of the Indian tribes adjoining the frontier settlements, from that period to the 8th February, 1842, exhibiting the times when, the persons to whom, and the particular purpose for which, such expenditures were made.
