CHEROKEE CLAIMS.

LETTER

FROM

THE SECOND COMPTROLLER AND SECOND AUDITOR,

TRANSMITTING

A statement of the claims of the Cherokee nation of Indians, in compliance with a resolution of Congress of the 7th August, 1848.

JANUARY 24, 1850.

Referred to the Committee on Indian Affairs, and ordered to be printed.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
December 3, 1849.

SIR: The proper accounting officers of the treasury having been required by the joint resolution of the 7th of August, 1848, to make a just and fair statement of the claims of the Cherokee nation of Indians, according to the principles established by the treaty of August, 1846, between the United States and said Indians, do now, as required by said resolution, report that they have caused a full and thorough examination to be made of all the accounts and vouchers of the several officers and agents of the government of the United States who have disbursed money appropriated to carry into effect the treaty with the Cherokee nation of 1835, and also of the claims that have been admitted at the treasury. As the result of said examination, it appears that there has been paid—

For improvements, the sum of	-	-	-	-	$1,540,572	27
For ferries, the sum of	-	-	-	-	159,572	12
For spoliations, the sum of	-	-	-	-	264,894	09
For removal and subsistence, and commutation therefor, including $2,765 84 expended for goods for the poorer classes of Cherokees, as mentioned in the 15th article of the treaty of 1835-'36, and including, also, necessary incidental expenses of enrolling agents, conductors, commissaries, medical attendance and supplies, &c., the sum of	-	-	-	-	2,952,196	26
For debts and claims upon the Cherokee nation, the sum of	-	-	-	-	101,348	31
For the additional quantity of land ceded to said nation, the sum of	-	-	-	-	500,000	00
For amount invested as the general fund of the nation, the sum of	-	-	-	-	500,880	00
The "aggregate of which general sums" is	-	-	-	-	6,019,463	05

And which, being deducted from the sum of $6,647,067, agreeably to the directions of the ninth article of the treaty of 1846, leaves a balance of $627,603 95 due to the Cherokee nation.

As it is contended by the agents of the Cherokee nation that sundry items of expenditure embraced in the foregoing statement are not properly chargeable upon the nation under the treaty of 1846, particularly a portion of the incidental expenses connected with the removal, amounting to $96,999 42, the undersigned report herewith a particular statement of those expenses, showing the amount thereof in detail, in order that the question thus raised on the part of the Cherokees may be decided by Congress.

Which is respectfully submitted.

ALBION K. PARRIS,
Second Comptroller.
P. CLAYTON,
Second Auditor.

To the SPEAKER
of the House of Representatives of the United States.
