II.—OFFICES CREATED AND THE SALARIES THEREOF.

[Prepared in the office of the Secretary of the Senate.]

By the act (Chap. —) making appropriations to supply deficiencies in the appropriations for the service of the year ending June 30, 1871, and for additional appropriations for the service of the year ending June 30, 1872, and for other purposes.

Appropriation is made for payment, during the present fiscal year, of two clerks of class three, four clerks of class two, nineteen clerks of class one, and two assistant messengers in the Pension Office, to be appointed by the Secretary of the Interior, $3,260; and for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1872, for four clerks of class three, eight clerks of class two, forty-eight clerks of class one, and three assistant messengers in said office, to be appointed in like manner, $77,360.

For compensation of the clerks in the office of the surveyor general of Minnesota, employed upon the survey of the public lands within the limits of the grant to the Northern Pacific Railroad, under act of July 15, 1870, $9,200 is appropriated; and for compensation of the clerks in the office of the surveyor general of California, $2,600 is appropriated.

One assistant journal-clerk of the House of Representatives, at $2,592 per annum.

Three assistant observers at the Naval Observatory, but their compensation is not named in the act.

By section 27, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to employ crews of experienced surfmen at stations along the coast of New Jersey and Long Island, at a reasonable compensation, not to exceed $40 per month each.

By the act (Chap. —) to create a port of delivery at Potomac, Virginia, and for other purposes.

Potomac, Virginia, is created a port of delivery, and a deputy collector of customs shall be appointed therefor at a salary not to exceed $1,000 per annum.

III.—OFFICES, THE SALARIES OF WHICH HAVE BEEN INCREASED.

By the act (Chap. —) making appropriations to supply deficiencies in the appropriations for the service of the year ending June 30, 1871, and for additional appropriations for the service of the year ending June 30, 1872, and for other purposes.

By section 4 of said act, in addition to the clerkships authorized by the act approved May 5, 1860, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized and empowered to promote from the clerks of class one employed in the census office, three to be clerks of class four, seven of class three, fifteen of class two, and the sum of $7,600 is appropriated to pay the increased salary. The authority thus granted shall terminate in one year from date.

By section 25 the salary of the consul at Matamoras, Mexico, is established at $2,000 per annum; increase, $1,000.

By the act (Chap. —) concerning the compensation of the collector of customs for the district of Willamette, in the State of Oregon.

The collector for said district shall be allowed a salary at the rate of $1,000 per annum, with lawful fees and a commission on all customs money collected and accounted for by him, such salary, fees, and commissions not to exceed at the rate of $3,000 per annum; increase, the amount of commissions on customs money collected.
