CLAIMS OF WYANDOTT INDIANS.

LETTER

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR,

TRANSMITTING

Claims of Wyandott Indians for property taken from them by whites.

JANUARY 21, 1871.—Referred to the Committee of Claims and ordered to be printed.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Washington, D. C., January 26, 1871.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit herewith a communication, dated the 14th instant, from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, together with the claims of John Kayraho, Mary Whitewing or widow Boyd, Hannah Coon, Peter Charloe, and Mary Kayraho, senior, Wyandott Indians, for depredations committed upon their property by white persons in the years 1849, 1859, 1862, 1863, 1864, and 1865.

For the reasons stated in the letter of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and agreeably to his recommendation, the claims are respectfully submitted to Congress for the consideration and action of that body.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

C. DELANO,
Secretary.

Hon. JAMES G. BLAINE,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
Washington, D. C., January 14, 1871.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit herewith claims of John Kayraho, Mary Whitewing or widow Boyd, Hannah Coon, Peter Charloe, and Mary Kayraho, senior, Wyandott Indians, for depredations committed upon their property by persons unknown, but supposed to be emigrants to California, or settlers in Kansas, at different times in the years 1849, 1859, 1862, 1863, 1864, and 1865; the aggregate value of the property lost by them in consequence thereof being $1,730.

These claims were submitted recently, (January 3, instant,) to this office for the first time, by A. Guthrie, in behalf of the claimants, through Honorable S. C. Pomeroy, with the remark by the former that through some neglect they were not sent to the Department when the treaty

(with the Wyandotts and other small tribes) of 1867 was made; and also with a request that they now be acted upon by Congress, in connection with the claims of a similar character allowed under that treaty, and which Congress will probably act upon this session.

The treaty of 1867, to which Mr. Guthrie refers, does not provide for the adjustment of the claims he now presents. They properly come under the provision contained in the 16th section of the act of Congress regulating trade and intercourse with Indian tribes; but as it is doubtless impracticable at this date to ascertain who were the depredators, and to proceed in the matter in accordance with the requirements of the law, I recommend that they be submitted to Congress for appropriate action thereon.

The testimony in each case is very meager and unsatisfactory, but it is perhaps the best that could under the circumstances be procured; in two of the cases it appears from the interpolations made that the papers were prepared for use in 1862, but were not subscribed until 1865; and that in the case of Hannah Coon the amount was originally $50, but afterward increased to $105.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

H. R. CLUM,
Acting Commissioner.

Hon. C. DELANO,
Secretary of the Interior.

Colonel PARKER,
Commissioner, &c., &c.:

I present herewith some claims for depredations from members of the Wyandott nation of Indians. They should be recommended to Congress, if there is no other way of payment.

S. C. POMEROY.

QUINDARO, KANSAS, December 29, 1870.

SIR: I herein send you a few Wyandott claims for depredations, and respectfully request that you will have them examined, and, if found correct, that you will send them to Congress, with a recommendation that they be paid. Through some neglect they had not been sent to the Department when the treaty of 1867 was made, but as the claims allowed under that treaty will probably be acted on by Congress at the present session, I should like to have all the claims acted on at once, and thus close up all claims of the Wyandotts.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant;

A. GUTHRIE,
In behalf of the Wyandotts.

Hon. E. S. PARKER,
Commissioner of Indian Affairs.
