

4-29-1876

Brothertown Reservation, in the State of Wisconsin

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.law.ou.edu/indianserialset>

 Part of the Indian and Aboriginal Law Commons

Recommended Citation

H.R. Rep. No. 445, 44th Cong., 1st Sess. (1876)

This House Report is brought to you for free and open access by University of Oklahoma College of Law Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in American Indian and Alaskan Native Documents in the Congressional Serial Set: 1817-1899 by an authorized administrator of University of Oklahoma College of Law Digital Commons. For more information, please contact darinfox@ou.edu.

BROTHERTOWN RESERVATION, IN THE STATE OF WIS-CONSIN.

APRIL 29, 1876.—Committed to a Committee of the Whole House and ordered to be printed.

Mr. MORGAN, by unanimous consent, from the Committee on Indian Affairs, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany bill H. R. 2096.]

It appears to the satisfaction of the committee that in the year A. D. 1832, the Brothertown Indians purchased from the United States a township of land containing twenty-three thousand and forty acres, lying on the east side of Lake Winnebago, in the Territory of Wisconsin, and that by a subsequent treaty, made October 20, 1832, and ratified March 13, 1833, the right was secured to said tribe to partition and divide said township of land among the different individuals composing said tribe of Brothertown Indians, and to be held by them in fee-simple and in severalty, and that the said land was divided and partitioned and patented accordingly; but that inadvertently and by mistake a portion of said township remained undivided and was not included in the partition as of right and by provision of law it should have been, which mistake is rectified by this bill, which your committee report back with recommendation that it pass as amended in committee.

○