Postmasters of the first, second, and third classes shall be appointed and may be removed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall hold their offices for four years unless sooner removed or suspended according to law; and postmasters of the fourth class shall be appointed and may be removed by the Postmaster-General, by whom all appointments and removals shall be notified to the Auditor for the Post-Office Department. SEC. 7. That the respective compensations of postmasters of the first, second, and third classes shall be annual salaries, assigned in even hundreds of dollars, and payable in quarterly payments, to be ascertained and fixed by the Postmaster-General from their respective quarterly returns to the Auditor for the Post-Office Department, or copies or duplicates thereof, for four quarters immediately preceding the adjustment or re-adjustment, by adding to an amount of the box-rents of the office received or estimated not exceeding $1,350 when the boxes are supplied and owned by the postmaster, and two-thirds of the box-rents, and not to exceed $1,000 when the boxes are not supplied and owned by the postmaster, commissions on all other postal revenues of the office to an amount not exceeding $1,350, at the following rates, namely: On the first $100 per quarter, 60 per cent.; on all over $100 and not over $300 per quarter, 50 per cent.; on all over $300 and not over $700 per quarter, 40 per cent.; and 30 per cent. on all revenues exceeding $700 per quarter; but the aggregate of the said commissions not to exceed $1,350; and at all offices where the total revenues exceed, respectively, $4,000 per annum, there shall be added to the compensation hereinbefore provided from box-rents and commissions a percentage of the gross revenues at the following rates, namely: 1 per cent. on all sums over $4,000 and not exceeding $10,000; nine-tenths of 1 per cent. on all sums over $10,000 and not exceeding $20,000; eight-tenths of 1 per cent. on all sums over $20,000 and not exceeding $40,000; six-tenths of 1 per cent. on all sums over $40,000 and not exceeding $60,000; five-tenths of 1 per cent. on all sums over $60,000 and not exceeding $160,000; four-tenths of 1 per cent. on all sums over $160,000 and not exceeding $320,000; three-tenths of 1 per cent. on all sums over $320,000 and not exceeding $640,000; two-tenths of 1 per cent. on all sums over $640,000 and not exceeding $1,280,000; and one-tenth of 1 per cent. on all sums exceeding $1,280,000; and in order to ascertain the amount of the postal receipts of each office, the Postmaster-General may require postmasters to furnish duplicates of their quarterly returns to the Auditor at such times and for such periods as he may deem necessary in each case: Provided, That at offices where the letter-carrier system is now, or may hereafter be, established, the box-rents, in fixing the compensation of the respective postmasters at such offices, shall be estimated at not less than $1,000 per annum; but at all such offices where the compensation is now $4,000, they shall be estimated at an amount which, with the commissions and percentages hereby allowed, will make the salaries of the postmasters thereat not less than $3,000. SEC. 8. That the compensation of postmasters of the fourth class shall be the box-rents collected at their offices, and commissions on other postal revenues of their offices at the following rate, namely: On the first $100 or less per quarter, 60 per cent.; on all over $100 and not over $300 per quarter, 50 per cent.; and all over $300 per quarter, 40 per cent.; the same to be ascertained and allowed by the Auditor in the settlement of the quarterly accounts of such postmasters: Provided, That when the aggregate annual compensation, exclusive of commissions on money-order business, of any postmaster of this class shall amount to $1,000, the Auditor shall report such fact to the Postmaster-General, in order that such postmaster may be assigned to his proper class, and his salary fixed as heretofore provided. SEC. 9. That the salaries of postmasters of the first, second, and third classes shall be re-adjusted by the Postmaster-General once in two years, and in special cases, on the application of the postmaster, as much oftener as the Postmaster-General may deem expedient. SEC. 10. That the Postmaster-General shall make all orders assigning or changing the salaries of postmasters in writing, and record them in his journal, and notify the change to the Auditor; and any change made in such salaries shall not take effect until the first day of the quarter next following such order: Provided, That in cases of not less than 50 per cent. increase or decrease in the business of any post-office, the Postmaster-General may adjust the salary of the postmaster at such office to take effect from the first day of the quarter or period the returns for which form the basis of re-adjustment. SEC. 11. That the Postmaster-General may designate offices at the intersection of mail-routes as distributing or separating offices; and where any such office is of the third or fourth class, he may make a reasonable allowance to the postmaster for the necessary cost of clerical services arising from such duties, and the provisions of this act relating to and fixing the compensation or salaries of postmasters shall take effect on the 1st day of October next. SEC. 12. No salary of any postmaster under this act shall exceed the sum of $4,000 per annum, except in the city of New York, which salary shall remain as now fixed by law; and no salary of any postmaster where the appointment is now presidential shall be reduced by the compensation herein established until the next re-adjustment below the sum of $1,000 per annum. SEC. 13. That railroad companies whose railroad was constructed in whole or in part by a land-grant made by Congress on the condition that the mails should be transported over their road at such price as Congress should by law direct shall receive only 80 per cent. of the compensation authorized by this act. SEC. 14. And hereafter the transmission of internal-revenue stamps to the officers of the internal-revenue service shall be made through the mails of the United States in registered packages.
For salaries and expenses of collectors.....	1,800,000 03
For salaries, and expenses of agents and surveyors, for fees and expenses of gaugers, for salaries of store-keepers and for miscellaneous expenses.....	1,475,000 00
And hereafter no store-keeper shall receive a greater compensation than $4 per day; and said gaugers and store-keepers, respectively, shall only receive compensation when rendering actual service. And it shall be the duty of the President, and he is hereby authorized and directed, to reduce the number of internal-revenue districts to not exceeding one hundred and thirty-one, in the manner heretofore provided by law, which reduction shall take effect on the 1st day of September, 1876, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable. And sections 3159 and 3160 of the Revised Statutes, and all laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of the foregoing paragraphs relating to the internal-revenue service, are hereby repealed. The powers of transfer and of suspension of officers, conferred upon supervisors by section 3163 of the Revised Statutes, are hereby vested in the Commissioner of Internal Revenue; and all other powers conferred, and duties imposed, by said section upon supervisors are hereby conferred and imposed upon collectors of internal revenue within their respective districts. In case of the supervision of a collector, under the power hereby conferred, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall, as soon thereafter as practicable, report the case to the President, through the Secretary of the Treasury, for such action as he may deem proper. And sections 2649, 2650, and 2651 of the Revised Statutes, and all laws and parts of laws authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to appoint special agents to be employed in the customs-service and classifying them and regulating the duties of said agents, shall be so modified as to authorize the appointment of only twenty special agents, each of whom shall receive a compensation of not exceeding $8 per day, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, and actual traveling-expenses when actually employed in the duties of such agency. And sections 3321 of the Revised Statutes, and 3323, so far as the latter relates to wholesale liquor-dealers' packages filled on the premises of wholesale liquor-dealers, shall, from and after ten days from the passage of this act, be repealed; and packages of distilled spirits filled on the premises of any wholesale liquor-dealer shall thereafter be stamped under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe.
That the Secretary of the Treasury may, upon the recommendation of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, impose the duties of store-keeper and gauger upon one officer, where the amount of spirits produced at the distillery to which such officer may be assigned is not sufficient, in the judgment of the Commissioner, to warrant the employment of two officers to perform the separate duties of store-keeper and gauger. The Secretary of the Treasury may issue a commission to such officer as store-keeper and gauger, but the compensation for his services as store-keeper and gauger shall be that of store-keeper only. And the said officer shall, before entering upon the discharge of such duties, give a bond in the penal sum of not less than $5,000 for the faithful performance of the combined duties of store-keeper and gauger.

II.—NEW OFFICES CREATED AND THE SALARIES THEREOF.

[Prepared in the office of the Secretary of the Senate.]

By the act (No. 31) to authorize the sale of the Pawnee reservation.

The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to appoint three disinterested and competent persons to examine and appraise the Pawnee reservation-lands in Nebraska and the improvements thereon, and report to the Secretary of the Interior.

No compensation is mentioned in the act.

By the act (No. 45) to establish a land-office in the southern part of Utah Territory, to be known as the Beaver land-district, and for other purposes.

The President is authorized to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a register and a receiver for the district created by this act, who shall receive the same compensation prescribed for like officers of the district now established at Salt Lake City, viz, $500 each per annum and fees.

By the act (No. 54) revising and amending the various acts establishing and relating to the reform-school of the District of Columbia.

The officers of this institution shall be in charge of and governed by a board of seven trustees, who shall be appointed by the President of the United States upon recommendation of the Attorney-General, one of whom shall be elected president of the board by the members thereof.

The said board of trustees is authorized to appoint a superintendent, two or more teachers or assistants, and a matron; also two or more master mechanics, a farmer and a gardener, and such other laborers and servants as may be necessary.

The compensation of the mechanics, farmer, gardener, servants, and laborers shall be fixed by the board of trustees; but no compensation is fixed by the act for trustees, teachers, assistants, or matron.

The trustees are also authorized to appoint a treasurer, whose compensation is not named in the act.

The appointment of two consulting-trustees is provided for, consisting of one Senator, to be appointed by the President of the Senate for the term of four years, and one member of the House of Representatives, to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives for the term of two years. No compensation named in the act.

By the act (No. 79) establishing Cheboygan, in the State of Michigan, a port of delivery.

Cheboygan, Mich., is declared a port of delivery, instead of Duncan City, Mich., and the office of deputy collector at Duncan City is required to be removed to Cheboygan.

No provision respecting salary is contained in the act.

By the act (No. 83) to further the administration of justice in the State of Colorado.

The State of Colorado is constituted a judicial district, for which a district judge, at a salary of $3,500 per annum, and a marshal, a district attorney, and a clerk shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The latter officers shall respectively receive the fees and compensation allowed other like officers.

By the act (No. 96) providing for the sale of the Kansas Indian lands in Kansas to actual settlers, and for the disposition of the proceeds of the sale.
