The President of the United States shall, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint seven commissioners, three of whom shall be selected from the Engineer Corps of the Army, one from the Coast and Geodetic Survey, and three from civil life, two of whom shall be civil engineers. And any vacancy which may occur in the commission shall in like manner be filled by the President of the United States; and he shall designate one of the commissioners appointed from the Engineer Corps of the Army to be president of the commission. The commissioners appointed from the Engineer Corps of the Army and the Coast and Geodetic Survey shall receive no other pay or compensation than is now allowed them by law, and the other three commissioners shall receive as pay and compensation for their services each the sum of three thousand dollars per annum.

By the joint resolution (No. 4) in relation to the international exhibitions to be held at Sydney and Melbourne, Australia, in 1879 and 1880.

There is appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury of the United States not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $30,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary to effect the purpose of having a representation by exhibitors of the United States at both or either of the said exhibitions.

It is the duty of the Secretary of State to transmit to Congress a detailed statement of the expenditures which may have been incurred under the provisions of this resolution, together with all reports which may be submitted by the person or persons delegated to carry out the purposes hereof, as commissioners or otherwise.

By the joint resolution (No. 18) in relation to committee clerks, pages, and other employes of the Senate and House of Representatives, and for other purposes.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives shall pay one additional laborer in the engineer's department of the House of Representatives, for the fiscal year 1880, $820.

The Secretary of the Senate shall pay Wilbur F. McDaniel for services as messenger to Senate document-room, under resolution of the Senate of May 20, 1879, for the fiscal year 1879, $80, and for the fiscal year 1880, $720.

The above-named amounts are appropriated by the joint resolution.

III.—THE OFFICES, THE SALARIES OF WHICH HAVE BEEN INCREASED WITH THE AMOUNT OF SUCH INCREASE DURING THE SAME PERIOD.

By the act (No. 27) making appropriations for the legislative, executive, and judicial expenses of the government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1880, and for other purposes.
