Brought forward—By the act making appropriations for fortifications and other works of defense, and for the armament thereof, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1882, and for other purposes.

That the money herein appropriated shall be held by the President and applied, as follows, to-wit: That the Commissioner of the District of Columbia be, and he is hereby, authorized to sell and convey, by good and sufficient deed, to each of the owners of lot 1, square 184; lot 5, square 185; lots 6, 7, and 7, square 184; lot 12, square 199, in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, such portion of the ground immediately adjoining the front of said lots, or either of them, as will make the angles at the four corners of Sixteenth and K streets, northwest, right angles, upon payment in cash of the United States by said owners, of each and every part of said number of feet in each lot so to be conveyed at the rate the same may be appraised by three disinterested freeholders resident of the city of Washington, to be selected and sworn by said Chief of Engineers, who shall also appraise said real estate at the true value thereof in money; and upon said sale, the owners of said lots respectively shall pay into the Treasury of the United States, for the erection of a high-school building in the District of Columbia, one-third of said purchase money, and the remainder thereof, with interest, in one year from the date of the sale. No conveyance shall be made until all the purchase-money is paid: Provided, That Chief of Engineers shall not sell or convey one portion or any part of said real estate unless all the same is sold and conveyed.

And the secretary of war is directed to make report of the condition of the fortifications, and what number of them, if any, can be dispensed with; also, the following for the armament of fortifications, including heavy guns and howitzers for flank defense, carriage, projectiles, fuses, powder, and implements, their trial and proof, and all necessary expenses incident thereto, and for machine guns, including the conversion of smooth-bore cannon into rifles—

And the President is authorized to select a board, to consist of one engineer officer, two ordnance officers, and two officers of artillery, whose duty it shall be to make examinations of all inventions of heavy ordnance and improvements of heavy ordnance and projectiles that may be presented to them, including guns now being constructed or converted under direction of the Ordnance Bureau; and said board shall make detailed report to the Secretary of War, for transmission to Congress, of such examination, with recommendation as to what inventions are worthy of the United States for the use of the army; and the estimated cost of each test; and from the sum of $250,000, therefrom as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated for such purpose.

And the Secretary of War is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to exchange the unserviceable and unsuitable powder and shot on hand for new powder and projectiles, or to sell the same and purchase similar articles with the proceeds of the same; and he shall make statement of his action under this provision in his next annual report.

Such parts of the money appropriated by this act for any particular improvement requiring the expenditure of funds as may be necessary in the prosecution of such improvement as may be necessary, may be expended in the purchase, voluntary or by condemnation, as the case may be, of necessary sites: Provided, That such expenditure shall be under the direction of the Secretary of War: And provided further, That the owners of such lands shall refuse to sell them at reasonable prices, then the prices to be paid shall be determined and the title and jurisdiction procured in the manner prescribed by the laws of the State in which such lands or sites are situated. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of War to apply the money herein appropriated for improvements, other than surveys and estimates, in carrying on the various works, as far as can be without actual detriment to the interest of the government, by contract. Where such works cannot be done by contract without injury to the public interest, they may be prosecuted by hired labor. Where said works are done by contract, such contract shall be made after sufficient public advertisement for proposals, in such manner and form as the Secretary of War shall prescribe; and such contracts shall be made with the lowest responsible bidders, accompanied by such securities as the Secretary of War shall require, conditioned for the faithful prosecution of the work according to such contract, and for the proper payment of all liabilities incurred in the prosecution thereof for labor and material.

That the Joint resolution approved July 50, 1868, authorizing the construction of the bridge over the Mississippi River "to connect the island of Rock Island with the cities of Davenport and Rock Island," is hereby so amended as to require the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad Company to charge for any cars carrying freight other than those passing over its own road, and for its own cars when carrying freight for other roads, which it may carry across said bridge, a sum not exceeding $3 for every loaded car, two-fifths of which sums shall be paid by said railroad company into the Treasury of the United States each month; and the monthly returns thus made shall be in such form, and with such authentication, as the Secretary of War shall direct.
