For the armament of seacoast fortifications, including the manufacture and conversion of projectiles, fuses, powder, and all implements and improvements, and for the purchase of machine-guns of the latest improvement, $20,000.

For the purchase of such submarine movable torpedoes, propelled and controlled by power operated from shore stations, as may be recommended by the Board of Engineers of the Army of the United States and approved by the Secretary of War, $50,000; for the improvements and test of motors for movable torpedoes, $25,000; for purchase of submarine mines for harbor defense, $5,000; for continuation of torpedo experiments and for practical instruction of engineer troops in the details of the service, $5,000; for the purchase of machine-guns of the latest improvement, $100,000; for the purchase of such submarine movable torpedoes as may be recommended by the Board of Engineers of the Army of the United States and approved by the Secretary of War, $20,000.

For the preservation of Fort Marion, at Saint Augustine, Fla., and for the inclosure and improvement of the grounds attached to the same, said grounds to be in charge of the commanding officer of said fort, $5,000.

It shall be the duty of the Secretary of War to cause the various calibers, lengths of bore, greatest and least admissible weights of guns for each caliber, together with the data and specifications, their trial and proof, and all necessary expenses incident thereto, including compensation of draughtsmen on gun construction while employed in the Ordnance Bureau, $400,000; and for salaries of envoys extraordinary and ministers plenipotentiary to be accredited to the United States at Paris, Berlin, and Saint Petersburg, $8,400,000; and for salaries of envoys extraordinary and ministers plenipotentiary to the United States at London, and for the salary of the secretary of legation, $15,000; and for salaries of ministers resident in Belgium, Netherlands, Hawaiian Islands, and Sweden and Norway, at $7,500 each, $30,000; and for salaries of ministers resident and consul-general in Venezuela and Argentine Republic, at $7,500 each, $15,000.

For the purchase of such submarine movable torpedoes, propelled and controlled by power operated from shore stations, as may be recommended by the Board of Engineers of the Army of the United States and approved by the Secretary of War, $50,000; for the improvements and test of motors for movable torpedoes, $25,000; for purchase of submarine mines for harbor defense, $5,000; for continuation of torpedo experiments and for practical instruction of engineer troops in the details of the service, $5,000; for the purchase of machine-guns of the latest improvement, $100,000.

For the preservation of Fort Marion, at Saint Augustine, Fla., and for the inclosure and improvement of the grounds attached to the same, said grounds to be in charge of the commanding officer of said fort, $5,000.

Sec. 2. That hereafter all rifled cannon of any particular material, caliber, or kind, manufactured in the United States, shall be publicly subjected to the test, including such rapid firing as a like gun would be likely to be subjected to in actual battle, for the determination of the entire weight of the same to the satisfaction of the Secretary of War or any such person as he may select; and he is hereby authorized to select not to exceed five persons, who shall be skilled in such military matters; and if such gun shall not prove satisfactory, they shall not be put to use in the Government service.

Sec. 3. That the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy are hereby authorized to sell to projectors of methods of conversion, for experimental purposes only, any smooth-bore cannon on hand required by them, at prices which shall not be less than have been derived from auction sales for such articles, and deliver the same, at the cost of the Government, at the nearest convenient place for shipment or public transportation; the cost of delivery to be deducted from the proceeds of sales, and the balance to be covered into the Treasury of the United States.

The act making appropriations for the naval service for the fiscal year 1883, approved August 5, 1883, as provides that the words "ordnance" and "gunpowder" in section 3721 of the Revised Statutes shall be construed to mean offensive and defensive arms, ammunition, and explosives, the apparatus of their military use, and the materials for producing the whole, and also transportation, necessary information concerning them, and whatever is requisite in military experiments with them, be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

For trust-fund interest due Menomonees, $350;
For trust-fund interest due Ottawas and Chippewas, $230; in all........................................ $5,764, 232 91

SEC. 3. That no purchase of supplies for which appropriations are herein made exceeding in the aggregate $500 in value at any one time shall be made without first giving at least three weeks' public notice by advertisement, except in cases of exigency, when, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, who shall make official record of the facts constituting the exigency, and shall report the same to Congress at its next session, he may direct that purchases may be made in open market in amount not exceeding $5,000.

SEC. 4. That so much of the appropriations herein made as may be required to pay for goods and supplies, and for transportation of the same, for the year ending June 30, 1885, shall be immediately available; but no such goods or supplies shall be distributed or delivered to any of said Indians prior to July 1, 1884; and the Secretary of the Interior, under the direction of the President, may use any surplus that may remain in money, or any surplus appropriation herein made for the purchase of supplies, in the purchase of supplies for any of the several Indian tribes, to an amount not exceeding $25,000 in the aggregate, to supply any subsistence deficiency that may occur: Provided, however, That funds appropriated to the uses herein shall not be so used: And provided further, That any diversions which shall be made under authority of this section shall be reported in detail, and the reasons therefor, to Congress, at the session of Congress next succeeding such diversion: That the Secretary of the Interior, under the direction of the President, may use any surplus appropriated in this act for subsistence, and not absolutely necessary for that purpose, for the purchase of stock cattle for the benefit of the tribes for which such appropriation is made, or for the assistance of such Indians to become farmers, and shall report to Congress, at its next session thereafter, an account of his action under this provision.

SEC. 5. That when not required for the purpose for which appropriated, the funds herein provided for the pay of specified employees at any agency may be used by the Secretary of the Interior for the pay of other employees at such agency, but no deficiency shall be thereby created, and, when necessary, specified employees may be detailed for other service when not required for the duty for which they were engaged; and that the several appropriations herein made for millers, blacksmiths, engineers, carpenters, physicians, and other persons, and for various articles provided for by treaty stipulation for the several Indian tribes may be diverted to other uses for the benefit of the said tribes, respectively, within the discretion of the President, and with the consent of said tribes, expressed in the usual manner; and that he cause report to be made to Congress, at its next session thereafter, of his action under this provision.

SEC. 6. That the President may, in his discretion, consolidate two or more agencies into one; and where Indians are located on reservations created by executive order, he may, in his discretion, consolidate one or more tribes, and abolish such agencies as are thereby rendered unnecessary; and preference shall at all times, as far as practicable, be given to Indians in the employment of clerical, mechanical, and other help on reservations and about agencies.

SEC. 7. That whenever, after advertising for bids for supplies in accordance with section 3 of this act, those received for any article contain conditions detrimental to the interest of the Government, they may be rejected and the articles specified in such bids purchased in open market, at prices not to exceed those of the lowest bidder, and not to exceed the market price of the same, until such time as satisfactory bids can be obtained, for which immediate advertisement shall be made.

SEC. 8. That any disbursing or other officer of the United States, or other person, who shall knowingly present, or cause to be presented, any voucher, account, or claim to any officer of the United States for approval or payment, or for the purpose of securing a credit in any account with the United States, relating to any matter pertaining to the Indian service, which shall contain any material misrepresentation of fact in regard to the amount due or paid, the name or character of the article furnished or received, or of the service rendered, or to the date of purchase, delivery, or performance of service, or in any other particular, shall not be entitled to payment or credit for any part of said voucher, account, or claim; and if any such credit shall be given or received, or payment made, the United States may recharge the same to the officer or person receiving the credit or payment, and recover the amount from either or both, in the same manner as other debts due the United States are collected: Provided, That an account contains more than one voucher the foregoing shall apply only to such vouchers as contain the misrepresentation: And provided further, That the officers and persons by and between whom the business is transacted, in all settlements in form, or out of settlement of accounts, are presumed to know the facts in relation to the matter set forth in the voucher, account, or claim: And provided further, That the foregoing shall be in addition to the penalties now prescribed by law, and in no way affect proceedings under existing law for like offenses. That where practicable this section shall be printed on blank forms of vouchers provided for general use.

That a commission to be called the Missouri River Commission is hereby created, to consist of five members.

That the President shall nominate and, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, five commissioners, three of whom shall be selected from the officers of the Engineers of the Army and two from civil life, one of whom at least shall be a civil engineer; and he shall in like manner fill all vacancies in said commission; and he shall designate one of the commissioners appointed from the Corps of Engineers to be president of the commission. The commissioners appointed from the Corps of Engineers shall receive no other pay or compensation than is allowed them by law, and the other two commissioners shall each receive for their services pay at the rate of $2,500 per annum, out of any money appropriated for the Missouri River; and all said commissioners shall remain in office subject to removal by the President of the United States.

That it shall be the duty of said commission to superintend and direct such improvement of said river and to carry into execution such plans for the improvement of the navigation of said river from its mouth to its headwaters as may now be devised and in progress, and to continue and complete such surveys as may now be necessary, topographical, hydro graphical, and hydrometrical, and to consider, devise, and mature such additional plan or plans, and all such estimates as may be deemed necessary and best, and to obtain and maintain a channel and depth of water in said river sufficient for the purposes of commerce and navigation; and to accomplish the ends of this act, and to enable the commission to perform the duties assigned them, the Secretary of War is hereby authorized and directed to transfer to and place under the charge and direction of said commission all such lands, lands, machinery, and instruments, and such plant as may now be provided, devised, or in use on said river, from appropriations heretofore made for said river, or other sources, and requested by said commission to detail from the Corps of Engineers such officers and men as may be necessary, and to place in charge of said commission any such vessels, machinery, and instruments under his control as may be deemed necessary; and said commission may, with the approval of the Secretary of War, employ such additional force and assistants, and provide, by purchase or otherwise, such additional vessels, boats, machinery, instruments, and means as may be deemed necessary; to be paid for by appropriations made or to be made for said river.

That the said commission shall, under the direction and with the approval of the Secretary of War, superintend, control, and expend for the purposes of this act all appropriated and theretofore made for the improvement of said river, and which may hereafter be made for said river, or so much thereof as may be necessary, and shall prepare and submit through the Chief of Engineers Corps, to the Secretary of War, to be by him transmitted to Congress at the beginning of the regular session in December of each year, a full and detailed report of all their proceedings and actions, and of all such plans and systems of work as may now be devised and in progress, and carried out by them, and of all such additional plans and estimates as may be deemed necessary, and all money hereby or hereafter appropriated for the improvement of said Missouri River shall be expended under the direction of the Secretary of War in accordance with the recommendations of said commission when such recommendations shall have been approved by Congress.

Of which sum, $70,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the completion of the Davis Island Dam, shall be expended on that work; $90,000 shall be used in continuing work on the upper and lower dikes and other improvements at Grand Chain; and $80,000 for the ice-harbor at the mouth of the Great Kankakee, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the improvement of the navigation of the river at Jeffersonville, and the protection of the Government property.

Sec. 2. That the Secretary of War shall prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary to secure a judicious and economical expenditure of said sums, and shall cause to be made and submitted to Congress annual reports, on or before January first, of each year, a detailed statement of the work done, contracts let, expenditures thereunder or otherwise, and the effect of such work, together with such recommendations as he may deem it proper to lay before Congress. He shall also report to Congress, at its next session, all the instances in the United States in which public or other structures or works built or resurveyed or otherwise, in aid of commerce or navigation were used, occupied, or injured by a corporation or an individual, and the extent and mode of such use, occupation, or injury, and the facts making the same. He shall also report whether any bridges, causeways, or structures, now erected or in process of erection, do or will interfere with free and safe navigation, and if they do or will so interfere, to report the best mode of altering or constructing such bridges or causeways to prevent any such obstructions.

Sec. 3. That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of War to apply the money herein appropriated for improvements, other than surveys and estimates, in carrying on the various works by contract or otherwise, as may be most economical and advantageous to the Government. Where said works are done by contract, such contract shall be made after sufficient public advertisement for proposals, in such manner and form as the Secretary of War shall prescribe; and such contracts shall be made with the lowest responsible bidders, accompanied by such securities as the Secretary of War shall require, conditioned for the faithful prosecution and completion of the work according to such contract, and for the prompt payment of all liabilities incurred in the prosecution thereof for labor and material.

Sec. 4. That no tolls or operating charges whatsoever shall be levied or collected upon any vessel or vessels, dredges, or other passing water-craft through any canal or other work for the improvement of navigation belonging to the United States; and for the purpose of preserving and continuing the use and navigation of said canals, rivers, and other public works without interruption, the Secretary of War, upon the application of the chief engineer in charge of said works, may authorize any individual to draw his warrant upon the Secretary of the Treasury to pay the actual expenses of operating and keeping said works in repair, which warrants or requisitions shall be paid by the Secretary of the Treasury, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated: Provided, however, That a particularized statement of said expenses shall accompany the annual report of the Chief of Engineers.

Sec. 5. That out of the money herein appropriated for the Kentucky River the sum of $2,000 or so much thereof as may be necessary may be expended for the purchase of land for the construction of lock and dam at Beattyville; and so much thereof as may be necessary may be expended for the same purpose at lock No. 6. And provided further, That the sum of $6,000 authorized by the act approved June 14, 1880, to be expended for the removal of dams in Yadkin River North Carolina, may be expended in the near vicinity of said river, in the manner provided by law for acquiring the rights of way by removal or otherwise of such dams as may be necessary for the contemplated improvement, the said right of way or removal to be obtained by agreement with the parties interested, or in the event of failure to make a reasonable agreement by condemnation as provided for by the laws of the State of North Carolina.

Carried forward ........................................... 13,915,200
Brought forward ............................................................................................. $13,815,200 00

SEC. 6. That whenever, in the prosecution and maintenance of the improvement of the Mississippi River and other rivers, harbors, and public works for which appropriations are herein made, it becomes necessary or proper, in the judgment of the Secretary of War, to take possession of material found on bars and islands within the river banks, or other material lying adjacent or near to the line of any of said works and necessary for their prosecution or maintenance, the officers in charge of said works may, when they cannot agree as to the price with the owners thereof, in the name of the United States take possession of and use the same after having first paid or secured to be paid the value thereof, which may have been ascertained in the mode provided by the laws of the State wherein such property or material lies: Provided, however, That when the owner of such property or material shall fix a price for the same which in the opinion of said officer in charge shall be reasonable, he may take the same at such price without further delay. The Department of Justice shall represent the interests of the United States in the legal proceedings under this act.

SEC. 7. That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of War to prescribe such rules and regulations in respect to the use and administration of the Des Moines, Rapidan, and Saint Mary's Falls Canal, and the Louisville and Portland Canal, as in his judgment the public necessity may require; which rules and regulations shall be posted in some conspicuous place for the information of the public. Any person knowingly and willfully violating such rules and regulations shall be liable to fine not exceeding $500, or imprisonment not exceeding six months; to be enforced in any district court of the United States within whose territorial jurisdiction such offense may have been committed.

SEC. 8. That whenever the Secretary of War shall have good reason to believe that any railroad or other bridge now or hereafter to be constructed over any of the navigable waters of the United States, under authority of the United States, or of any State or Territory, is an obstruction to the free navigation of such waters, by reason of difficulty in passing the draw-opening or the raft-span of said bridge, by rafts, steamboats, or other water-craft, it shall be the duty of the said Secretary, on satisfaction of the company or persons owning, controlling, operating, or maintaining, at their own cost and expense, in the form of booms, dikes, piers, or other suitable and proper structures for the guiding of said rafts, steamboats, or other water-craft safely through said opening or span, or both said opening or span, as may be specified in his order in that behalf; and on failure of the company or persons aforesaid to make and establish such additional structures within a reasonable time, the said Secretary shall proceed to cause the same to be built or made at the expense of the company, or persons interested, or by order of the Attorney-General of the United States, whose duty it shall be to institute, in the name of the United States, proceedings in any circuit or district court of the United States in which such bridge, or any part thereof, is located for the recovery of the cost thereof; and all moneys accruing from such proceedings shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States: Provided, That no greater sum than $15,000 shall be required to be expended upon the same bridge in a single year: Provided further, That such sum of money as may be necessary to execute the provisions of this act is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the Treasury of the United States not otherwise appropriated to be paid on the requisition of the Secretary of War.

II. NEW OFFICES CREATED AND THE SALARIES THEREOF.
(Prepared in the office of the Secretary of the Senate.)

By the act (No. 15) to limit the cost of indexing the Congressional Record.

The Public Printer shall employ such person to prepare the index of the Congressional Record semi-monthly during the sessions of Congress as shall be designated by the Joint Committee on Printing, who shall also fix and regulate the compensation to be paid by the Public Printer for the said work: Provided, however, That the rate of compensation allowed for preparing the said semi-monthly indexes, including also their compilation into a complete session index, shall not exceed, for each page of the printed Congressional Record, the average that it cost per page of the Congressional Record for compiling the session index of the Forty-sixth Congress: And provided further, That there may be employed and paid on said work, at times not interfering with their ordinary employment, persons who are also employed and paid in any other office or employment under the Government.

By the act (No. 31) to provide for the appointment of an Acting Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution.

The Chancellor of the Smithsonian Institution may, by an instrument in writing filed in the office of the Secretary thereof, designate and appoint a suitable person to act as Secretary of the Institution when there shall be a vacancy in said office, and whenever the secretary shall be unable from illness, absence, or other cause to perform the duties of his office; and in such case the person so appointed may perform all the duties imposed on the Secretary by law until the vacancy shall be filled or such inability shall cease. No compensation mentioned in the act.

By the act (No. 36) providing a civil government for Alaska.

There shall be appointed a governor at a salary of $3,000.
A district judge at $3,000, who shall have authority to employ interpreters. Salary not indicated in the act.
A clerk shall be appointed for the court at a salary of $2,500.
A district attorney at $2,500.
A marshal at $2,500.
Four United States commissioners, who shall receive the usual fees of United States commissioners and of justices of the peace for Oregon, and such fees for recording instruments as are allowed by the laws of Oregon for similar services, and in addition a salary of $1,000 each.
The marshal shall appoint four deputies, who shall respectively be ex-officio constables and executive officers of the commissioners' courts, and shall have the powers and discharge the duties of United States deputy marshals and those of constables under the laws of Oregon now in force, and in addition to the usual fees of constables in Oregon shall receive each a salary of $750.
The governor, attorney, judge, marshal, clerk, and commissioners provided for in this act shall be appointed by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall hold their respective offices for the term of four years, and until their successors are appointed and qualified. They shall severally receive the fees of office established by law for the several offices the duties of which have been hereby conferred upon them, as the same are determined and allowed in respect of similar offices under the laws of the United States, which fees shall be reported to the Attorney-General and paid into the Treasury of the United States.

By the act (No. 41) for the establishment of a bureau of animal industry, to prevent the exportation of diseased cattle, and to provide means for the suppression and extirpation of pleuropneumonia and other contagious diseases among domestic animals.

The Commissioner of Agriculture shall organize in his Department a Bureau of Animal Industry, and shall appoint a chief thereof, who shall be a competent veterinary surgeon, and whose duty it shall be to investigate and report upon the condition of the domestic animals of the United States, their protection and use, and also inquire into and report the causes of contagious, infectious, and communicable diseases among them, and the means for the prevention and cure of the same, and to collect such information on these subjects as shall be valuable to the agricultural and commercial interests of the country; and the Commissioner of Agriculture is authorized to employ a force sufficient for this purpose, not to exceed twenty persons at any one time. The salary of the chief of said bureau shall be $3,000 per annum; and the Commissioner shall appoint a clerk for said bureau, with a salary of $1,500 per annum.

H. Mis. 64—8

The Commissioner of Agriculture is authorized to appoint two competent agents, who shall be practical stock-raisers or experienced business men familiar with questions pertaining to commercial transactions in live stock, whose duty it shall be, under the instructions of the Commissioner of Agriculture, to examine and report upon the best methods of treating, transporting, and caring for animals, and the means to be adopted for the suppression and extirpation of contagious pleuro-pneumonia, and to provide against the spread of other dangerous contagious, infectious, and communicable diseases. The compensation of said agents shall be at the rate of $10 per diem, with all necessary expenses, while engaged in the actual performance of their duties under this act, when absent from their usual place of business or residence as such agent.

By the act (No. 44) to amend sections 4, 5, and 9 of an act approved February 24, 1879, entitled "An act to create the northern judicial district of the State of Texas, and to change the eastern and western judicial districts of said State, and to fix the time and places for holding courts in said districts," and to provide for holding terms of the court of the western judicial district of Texas at the city of El Paso, and for other purposes.

There shall be appointed, in the manner provided by law, a deputy clerk, who shall keep his office at the city of El Paso.

No compensation is mentioned in the act.

By the act (No. 46) making an appropriation for the Agricultural Department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1885, and for other purposes.

DIVISION OF AGRICULTURAL STATISTICS.

One clerk of class three, at $1,600.
One clerk of class two, at $1,400.

By the act (No. 67) to remove certain burdens on the American merchant marine, and encourage the American foreign carrying trade, and for other purposes.

The Secretary of the Treasury shall appoint a commissioner for each port of entry, which is also a port of ocean navigation, and which, in his judgment, may require the same; such commissioner to be termed a shipping commissioner, and may, from time to time, remove from office any such commissioner whom he may have reason to believe does not properly perform his duty, and shall then provide for the proper performance of his duties until another person is duly appointed in his place: Provided, That shipping commissioners now in office shall continue to perform the duties thereof until others shall be appointed in their places. Shipping commissioners shall monthly render a full, exact, and itemized account of their receipts and expenditures to the Secretary of the Treasury, who shall determine their compensation, and shall from time to time determine the number and compensation of the clerks appointed by such commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, subject to the limitations now fixed by law. All fees of shipping commissioners shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States, and shall constitute a fund which shall be used under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury to pay the compensation of said commissioners and their clerks and such other expenses as he may find necessary to insure the proper administration of their duties.

Shipping commissioners have heretofore been appointed by the United States circuit judge of the district where appointed, and paid by fees not to exceed $5,000 per annum each; balance of fees above this sum to be paid into the Treasury, after paying expenses of the office.

By the act (No. 70) to grant letter-carriers at free-delivery offices fifteen days' leave of absence in each year.

All letter-carriers at free-delivery offices shall be entitled to leave of absence, not to exceed fifteen days in each year, without loss of pay; and the Postmaster-General is authorized to employ, when necessary, during the time such leave of absence is granted, such number of substitute letter-carriers as may be deemed advisable, who shall be paid for services rendered at the rate of $600 per annum.

By the act (No. 71) to establish a Bureau of Labor.

There shall be established in the Department of the Interior a Bureau of Labor, which shall be under the charge of a Commissioner of Labor, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall receive a salary of $3,000 a year.

The Secretary of the Interior, upon the recommendation of said Commissioner, shall appoint a chief clerk, who shall receive a salary of $2,000 per annum, and such other employees as may be necessary for the said Bureau.

By the act (No. 84) making appropriation for the current and contingent expenses of the Indian Department, and for fulfilling treaty stipulations with various Indian tribes, for the year ending June 30, 1885, and for other purposes.

One special agent at $2,000.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Pay of Indian police: Provided, That the agent of the Navajo Indians may employ ten Indian policemen at a rate of compensation not exceeding $15 per month each.

The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to detail a proper person or persons from the employes of the Geological Survey and to also appoint a suitable person not now in the employ of the Government, which said persons shall constitute a commission who shall, under the direction of the Secretary, proceed to examine and report upon the character, extent, thickness, and depth of each vein, the value of the coal per ton on the dump, and the best method to utilize the same, and to report their opinions as to the best method of disposing thereof within the limits of the White Mountain Indian reservation in the Territory of Arizona, and the result of said investigation to the Secretary and by him transmitted to Congress, and for the compensation and expenses of the member of the commission not of the Geological Survey and for the expenses of examination and investigation on the ground, $2,500.

Compensation of the commissioner, not of the Geological Survey, is not mentioned in the act.

By the act (No. 86) providing for two additional associate justices of supreme court of the Territory of Dakota, one additional associate justice of the supreme court of the Territory of Washington, and for other purposes.

Two additional associate justices of supreme court of the Territory of Dakota at $3,000 each, to be appointed by the President. One additional associate justice of the supreme court of the Territory of Washington, to be appointed by the President. No appropriation made for salary of this additional associate justice.

By the act (No. 94) to constitute a Bureau of Navigation in the Treasury Department.

The Commissioner of Navigation shall be appointed by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall receive a salary of $4,000 per annum. And the Secretary of the Treasury shall have power to transfer from existing bureaus or divisions of the Treasury one clerk to be designated as deputy commissioner of navigation, to act with the full powers of said Commissioner during his temporary absence from his official duty for any cause, and such additional clerks as he may consider necessary to the successful operation of the Bureau of Navigation, without impairing the efficiency of the bureaus or divisions whence such clerks may be transferred.
