IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

JANUARY 27, 1885.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. JACKSON, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany bill H. R. 297.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 297) granting a pension to Violet Calloway, has examined the same, and report:

It appears from the papers in this case that the husband of the claimant served awhile in the Indian wars of 1810-'11. The widow filed her claim for pension under the acts of Congress granting pensions to soldiers of the war of 1812, but the claim was rejected on the ground that the alleged service occurred prior to the war of 1812, and in this action no error was made.

Your committee therefore recommend that the bill do not pass, and that it be indefinitely postponed.
