The cost of both cruisers shall contain provisions to the effect that the contractor guarantees that when complete and tested for speed, under conditions to be prescribed by him, that said guaranteed speed there shall be deducted from the contract price the sum of $300,000.

That in the construction of the aforesaid vessels all of the provisions of the act of August 3, 1886, entitled “An act to increase the naval establishment,” as to material for said vessels, their engines, boilers, and machinery, the contracts under which they are built, the notice of and proposals for the same, the plans, drawings, and specifications therefor, and the method of executing said contracts, shall be observed and followed, and said vessels shall be built in compliance with the terms of said act, so far as the same relate to vessels constructed under contract, save that in all their parts they shall be of domestic manufacture. The contracts for the construction of said cruisers shall contain provisions to the effect that the contractor guarantees that when completed and tested for speed, under conditions to be prescribed by the Navy Department, the vessel shall exhibit a maximum speed of at least 18 knots per hour; and for every quarter knot of speed so exhibited above said guaranteed speed the contractor shall receive in contract price of said vessel, and for every quarter knot that said vessel fails of reaching said guaranteed speed there shall be deducted from the contract price the sum of $200,000.

In making proposals for contracts for building the vessels authorized to be constructed under this act, it shall be required that one of such vessels shall be built on or near the coast of the Pacific Ocean, or the waters connecting therewith, one of them on or near the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, or the waters connecting therewith, and two of the Atlantic Ocean, or the waters connecting therewith, and at such places on or near such coasts or waters as the Secretary of the Navy shall approve.

If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the President of the United States, from the biddings for said contracts, when the same are opened and examined by him, that said vessels cannot be constructed at a fair cost on or near the coast of the Pacific Ocean or the Gulf of Mexico, he shall authorize the construction of said vessels or either of them elsewhere in the United States. And the Secretary of the Navy is hereby authorized to readvertise for the construction of cruiser No. 1, known as the Newark, and the limit of cost of said vessel is hereby extended to $1,800,000, exclusive of armament.

SEC. 3. That for the purpose of further increasing the naval establishment of the United States, the sums of money hereinafter named are hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be expended by the President, in the exercise of his discretion, upon plans and specifications, to be furnished by the Navy Department:

For floating batteries or rams, or other naval structures, to be used for coast and harbor defense, $1,000,000.

The final cost of said floating batteries, rams, or other naval structures, exclusive of armament, shall not exceed $2,000,000.

For the purchase of, and the trial and testing of, torpedoes and appliances using explosive powder, operated from naval vessels, floating batteries, or rams, $36,000.

Which sum shall be immediately available.

That the material used in all naval structures provided for in this act, and the armament for the same shall be, so far as practicable, of American production, and furnished

Sec. 2. That the provisions in the act of Congress approved May seventeenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-six; appropriating the sum of three hundred and fifty-three and five cents to George K. Shearin (or Sherman), of Harrison County, Indiana, be, and is hereby, amended to appropriate the sum of three hundred and fifty-three dollars and five cents.

Total ...............................................................................................

181,722 $77.

By the act to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to sell and convey the United States custom-house and post-office property at Eastport, in the State of Maine, lately destroyed by fire, the proceeds thereof to be invested in the purchase of a new site for and to provide for the erection of a new public building at that place.

That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to sell at public auction, in the town of Eastport, Maine, to the highest bidder, after thirty days' publication of all of the newspapers published in the town of Eastport, the land and premises known as the United States custom-house and post-office, on Washington and Water streets in said town of Eastport, Maine, the time and place of said sale to be fixed by the Secretary of the Treasury at a date not later than sixty days after the passage of this act, with power to reject any or all bids, and to readvertise the said property in like manner as often as it may be necessary to secure the value thereof, and the cost to be paid from the proceeds of said property.

That the Secretary of the Treasury shall invest the purchase-money of the said property received by him, so far as the same may go, in the purchase or acquisition by condemnation of a site, and cause to be erected thereon a suitable and commodious fire-proof building, with fire-proof vaults, for the use and accommodation of the post-office, custom-house, and other Government offices, at the town of Eastport, in the State of Maine. The cost of said building, including site, approaches and heating apparatus, when completed upon plans and specifications to be previously made and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, shall not exceed the sum of $100,000; and the site purchased shall leave the building unexposed to danger from fire by an open space of at least 40 feet, including streets and alleys: Provided, That no part of said sum shall be deducted until the said site to the said site shall be vested in the United States, nor until the State of Maine shall cede to the United States exclusive jurisdiction over the same, during the time the United States shall be or remain the owners thereof, for all purposes except the administration of the criminal laws of said State and the service of any civil process thereunder.

For the purposes provided in this act ..............................................

$100,000 $00
By the act for the completion of a public building at Fort Scott, Kansas.

That the additional sum of $40,000 is hereby appropriated for the completion of a suitable building, with fire-proof vaults therein, for the accommodation of the post-office, United States courts, and other Government offices, at the city of Fort Scott, State of Kansas, to be expended by the Secretary of the Treasury, subject to the requirements of an act for that purpose approved March 3, 1885. The limit of cost prescribed in said act is hereby extended as aforesaid. And no plan shall be approved which will involve an expenditure for site and building complete, including approaches, greater than the limit herein fixed.

By the act to provide a school of instruction for cavalry and light artillery, and for the construction and completion of quarters, barracks, and stables at certain posts for the use of the Army of the United States.

That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to establish for the purpose of completion of quarters, Kansas, to be expended by the Secretary of the Treasury, subject to the requirements of an act for that purpose approved March 3, 1885. II.—NEW OFFICES CREATED AND THE SALARIES THEREOF.

(Prepared in the office of the Secretary of the Senate.)

By the act (No. 10) to extend the free-delivery system of the Post-Office Department, and for other purposes.

Letter-carriers shall be employed for the free delivery of mail matter as frequently as the public business may require, at every place containing a population of not less than ten thousand, within its corporate limits, according to the last general census, or at any post-office, which produced a gross revenue, for the preceding fiscal year, of not less than ten thousand dollars: Provided, That in offices where the free delivery shall be established under the provisions of this act, such free delivery shall not be abolished by reason of decrease below ten thousand in population or ten thousand dollars in gross postal revenue, except in the discretion of the Postmaster-General.

There may be in all cities which contain a population of seventy-five thousand or more three classes of letter-carriers, as follows: Carriers of the first class, whose salaries shall be one thousand dollars per annum; of the second class, whose salaries shall be eight hundred dollars per annum; and of the third class, whose salaries shall be six hundred dollars per annum.

In places containing a population of less than seventy-five thousand there may be two classes of letter-carriers, as follows: Carriers of the second class, whose salaries shall be eight hundred and fifty dollars per annum, and of the third class, whose salaries shall be six hundred dollars per annum.

Third-class letter-carriers in cities of seventy-five thousand or more population and the carriers of the third class in cities of less than seventy-five thousand population are new designations under the law, instead of allowing their employment in the discretion of the Postmaster-General at a smaller salary.

By the act (No. 41) to regulate commerce.

A Commission is created and established to be known as the Inter-State Commerce Commission, which shall be composed of five commissioners, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The Commissioners first appointed under this act shall continue in office for the term of two, three, four, five, and six years, respectively, from the first day of January, anno Domini eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, the term of each to be designated by the President; but their successors shall be appointed for terms of six years, except that any person chosen to fill a vacancy shall be appointed only for the unexpired time of the Commissioner whom he shall succeed. Any Commissioner may be removed by the President for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office. Not more than three of the Commissioners shall be appointed from the same political party. No person in the employ of or holding any official relation to any common carrier subject to the provisions of this act, or owning stock or bonds thereof, or who is any manner pecuniarily interested therein, shall enter upon the duties of or hold such office. Said Commissioners shall not engage in any other business, vocation, or employment. No vacancy in the Commission shall impair the right of the remaining Commissioners to exercise all the powers of the Commission.

Each Commissioner shall receive an annual salary of seven thousand five hundred dollars, payable in the same manner as the salaries of judges of the courts of the United States. The Commission shall appoint a secretary, who shall receive an annual salary of three thousand five hundred dollars, payable in like manner. The Commission shall have authority to employ and fix the compensation of such other employees as it may find necessary to the proper performance of its duties, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior.

The Commission shall be furnished by the Secretary of the Interior with suitable offices and all necessary office supplies. Witnesses summoned before the Commission shall be paid the same fees and mileage that are paid witnesses in the courts of the United States.

All of the expenses of the Commission, including all necessary expenses for transportation incurred by the Commissioners, or by their employees under their orders, in making any investigation in any other places than in the city of Washington, shall be allowed and paid, on the presentation of itemized vouchers therefor, approved by the chairman of the Commission and the Secretary of the Interior.
The Commission shall, on or before the first day of December in each year, make a report to the Secretary of the Interior, which shall be by him transmitted to Congress, and copies of which shall be distributed as are the other reports issued from the Interior Department. This report shall contain such information and data collected by the Commission as may be considered in the determination of questions connected with the regulation of commerce, together with such recommendations as to additional legislation relating thereto as the Commission may deem necessary.

By the act (No. 43) to provide for the allotment of lands in severalty to Indians on the various reservations, and to extend the protection of the laws of the United States and the Territories over the Indians, and for other purposes.

The allotments provided for in this act shall be made by special agents appointed by the President for such purpose, and the agents in charge of the respective reservations on which the allotments are directed to be made, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may from time to time prescribe, and shall be certified by such agents to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, in duplicate, one copy to be retained in the Indian Office and the other to be transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his action, and to be deposited in the General Land Office.

No compensation is mentioned in the act for the special agents authorized by the same.

By the act (No. 91) to amend the act dividing the State of Missouri into two judicial districts, and to divide the eastern and western districts thereof into divisions, establish district and circuit courts of the United States therein, and provide for the times and places for holding such courts, and for other purposes.

There shall be appointed a clerk for each of said courts at Hannibal, Saint Joseph, City of Kansas, and Springfield, and each clerk shall be a resident of the division in which the court of which he is clerk is held; he shall keep an office, and the records, files and documents pertaining to the court of his division, and he shall discharge all the duties and receive the fees required or allowed by law. And the marshals and the district attorneys for the said eastern and western judicial district shall be the marshal and attorney, respectively, for the divisions for their respective district, and shall be allowed the same fees and be subject to the same duties and liabilities as may be provided by law; and the marshal of each district shall keep an office and at least one general deputy residing at the place of holding courts in each division, excepting the division in which he may himself reside.

By the act (No. 93) to provide for holding terms of United States courts at Texarkana, Arkansas, and for other purposes.

The clerk of the courts for said district shall appoint a deputy for the said division, who shall keep an office open at all times in the city of Texarkana, and shall there keep the records, files, and documents pertaining to the courts authorized by this act.

No compensation is mentioned in the act.

By the act (No. 94) to provide for an additional associate justice of the supreme court of the Territory of New Mexico.

Hereafter the supreme court of the Territory of New Mexico shall consist of a chief justice and three associate justices, any three of whom shall constitute a quorum.

It shall be the duty of the President to appoint one additional associate justice of said supreme court in manner now provided by law, who shall hold his office for the term of four years, and until his successor is appointed and qualified.

The salary of $3,000 is fixed in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation bill for year ending June 30, 1888.

By the act (No. 99) to provide for holding terms of United States courts at Vicksburg, Mississippi.

The marshal and clerks of said southern district of Mississippi shall appoint deputies, who shall reside at Vicksburg and act as marshal and clerk of said courts in place of their principals.

No compensation is mentioned in the act.
By the act (No. 107) to effect a rearrangement of grades of office in the Adjutant-General's Department of the Army.

Two assistant adjutants-general, with the rank, pay, and emoluments of colonel, at four thousand five hundred dollars each; in lieu of two assistant adjutants-general with the rank, pay, and emoluments of major, at three thousand five hundred dollars each; and two assistant adjutants-general, with the rank, pay, and emoluments of lieutenant-colonel, at four thousand dollars each; in lieu of two assistant adjutants-general with the rank, pay, and emoluments of major, at three thousand five hundred dollars each.

By the act (No. 113) to amend section five hundred and thirty-six of the Revised Statutes of the United States, relating to the division of the State of Illinois into judicial districts, and to provide for holding terms of court of the northern district at the city of Peoria.

The clerks of the circuit and district courts of the northern district of Illinois shall be respectively the clerks of the courts of both divisions of the said district; that each of said clerks, or his deputies, shall keep an office open at all times at each of the places of holding said court, and shall there keep the records, files, and documents pertaining to the court of that division; and said clerk shall be entitled to the same fees now allowed him by law. In addition to his powers to appoint deputies, as now prescribed by law, each of said clerks shall be required to appoint a chief deputy for the court of that division in which he himself may not reside, who shall have all the powers of the clerk in his absence.

The marshal and clerk for said northern district of Illinois shall respectively appoint at least one deputy residing in the said southern division, unless he shall reside there himself, and also maintain an office at that place of holding court.
