B. F. DOWELL.

SEPTEMBER 14, 1888.—Committed to the Committee of the Whole House and ordered to be printed.

Mr. HERMANN, from the Select Committee on Indian Depredation Claims, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany bill H. R. 2813.]

The Select Committee on Indian Depredation Claims, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 2813) for the relief of B. F. Dowell, submit the following report:

Your committee find that on October 22, 1855, during the hostilities in southern Oregon the Rogue River Indians, who were at war, stole and carried off one mule, the property of claimant, which is proven to be of the value of $200, and to have been the property of claimant, and to have been stolen by said Indians without any fault or neglect on the part of claimant, and it further appears that said animal was never recovered and no compensation ever received therefor.

We therefore recommend the payment of said sum of $200.
