SARAH PHILLIPS.

APRIL 21, 1890.—Committed to the Committee of the Whole House and ordered to be printed.

Mr. PARRETT, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany H. R. 6287.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 6287) granting a pension to Sarah Phillips, have considered the same, and report as follows:

The claimant's deceased husband, Jonathan Phillips, was a private in Capt. Robert Newton's company of Tennessee Volunteers, Seminole Indian war, and served from January 31, 1818, to June 30, 1818.

In her petition for relief the claimant declares that she is eighty-four years old, and dependent for her support upon her children and upon a life interest in a farm of 120 acres, which is cultivated by her children; that her husband, the soldier, died on the 2d day of April, 1857, of pneumonia, superinduced by lung trouble, which she believes originated while he was in said service. She further states that she still remains the widow of Jonathan Phillips. The claimant's identity as the widow of the soldier is established by the sworn statement of Mary Cameron, who was present at their marriage and has known the parties since.

The committee recommend the passage of the bill with the following amendment: Strike out the word "twelve," in line 8, and substitute in lieu thereof the word "eight," it being the purpose of the committee to recommend a pension at $8 per month.
