MRS. G. W. GRIFFITH.

SEPTEMBER 18, 1890.—Committed to the Committee of the Whole House and ordered to be printed.

Mr. DE LANO, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany H. R. 7880.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 7880) granting a pension to Mrs. G. W. Griffith, have considered the same, and report as follows.

The claimant's deceased husband, George W. Griffith, was a private in Capt. James N. Sanford's company of Georgia Volunteers, Creek Indian war, and served from June 2, 1836, to July 12, 1836.

His widow is now advanced in years, without property or income, and a sufferer from rheumatism to such an extent that she can do no labor by which to earn a livelihood.

In view of the facts stated, your committee return the bill with a favorable recommendation.
