Agreement between the United States commissioners to negotiate with the Five Civilized Tribes and the commissioners on the part of the Creek (or Muskogee) Nation, concluded at Muskogee, Ind. T., February 1, 1899.

This Agreement, by and between the Government of the United States, entered into in its behalf by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, Henry L. Dawes, Tams Bixby, Archibald S. McKennon and

Thomas B. Needles, duly appointed and authorized thereunto, and the Creek (or Muskogee) Tribe of Indians in Indian Territory, entered into by its Commission, Roley McIntosh, Cowa Harjo, John Reed, Lambert Scott, G. W. Grayson, James Byrd, L. C. Perryman and the Principal Chief, Isparhecher, ex-officio, duly appointed and authorized thereunto,

Witnesseth, That in consideration of the mutual agreements and undertakings herein contained, it is agreed as follows:

GENERAL ALLOTMENT OF LAND.

1. All lands in Indian Territory belonging to the Creek (or Muskogee) Tribe of Indians except such as may be reserved for various purposes as herein provided, shall be divided among the bona fide citizens of said tribe, so as to give to each citizen an equal share in value, of all the lands of the tribe, as herein provided, and also an equal share in acres, as far as possible, conformable to Government surveys, except as herein otherwise provided.

2. All the lands of the tribe, after making reservations as hereinafter provided, shall be appraised by an Allotment Committee composed of one member of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, one appointed by the Secretary of the Interior, and one appointed by the Principal Chief of said tribe; provided, however, that the maximum appraisements so made, shall be five dollars per acre, and the minimum, twenty-five cents per acre.

3. All lands, excluding improvements, shall be appraised at relative values, within the limits above fixed, considering the value of the products that may be derived therefrom, the character and fertility of the soil, and the location.

4. The Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes shall allot one hundred and sixty acres of land, as nearly as may be, the boundaries to conform to the lines of the Government surveys, to each and every citizen of the Creek (or Muskogee) Tribe; and each citizen shall have the prior right to take for his allotment the land upon which he has improvements or which he may improve prior to allotment.

5. One hundred and sixty acres of land of the maximum value, as herein fixed, shall constitute a Standard Allotment, and shall be the measure for the equalization of values.

6. The residue of lands after allotment of one hundred and sixty acres to each citizen, as aforesaid, shall be used for the purpose of equalizing allotments.

7. None of the lands of the tribe shall be sold in any manner whatsoever, except as herein provided; but the same with such funds of the tribe as may be necessary, shall be used for the purpose of equalizing allotments.

8. The allottee receiving lands of less than the maximum value, shall receive lands or money or both, in addition thereto, in sufficient amount to make his share equal, in value, to one standard allotment, except as herein otherwise provided.

9. All the funds of the tribe derived from all sources whatsoever, shall be capitalized and the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes shall use the same for the purpose of equalizing allotments.

10. Said Commission shall determine all contests between members of the tribe as to the right to select any particular tract of land.

11. The allotment of a minor child shall be selected by his father, mother or guardian, and shall not be sold during his minority.

12. Allotments may be selected for prisoners, convicts and aged and afflicted persons by duly appointed agents and for incompetents by guardians or suitable persons akin to them.

13. Each allotment of land shall be non-taxable for twenty-one years or until title passes from the original patentee, such conditions to be stipulated in the deed; and shall be free from incumbrance by any debt or obligation, contracted prior to the date of the deed; and shall not be subject to any legal process issued for the collection of such debt or obligation.

14. After final allotment and while in the ownership of the original allottee, all lands shall be exempt from levy on execution or attachment, for any debt, unless the lands shall be pledged at the time of contracting the debt.

15. Each allottee shall select from his allotment, a homestead of forty acres, for which he shall have a separate patent, and which shall be inalienable for twenty-one years from date of patent. The remainder of the lands shall be alienable for a consideration to be actually paid, and not to include any former indebtedness or obligation.

16. When an allotment shall be made to any citizen as herein provided, the allottee shall receive a certificate from said Commission, describing the lands so allotted, and the Principal Chief of the Creek (or Muskogee) Nation, shall, upon demand, execute under his hand and the tribal seal and deliver to each of said allottees in lieu of said certificate, patents, conveying absolute fee simple title to said allottee, transferring all the right, title and interest of every other citizen in and to the land which shall have been allotted to him.

17. The Secretary of the Interior shall indorse on each deed, so executed, his approval, which shall guarantee the title to the allottee and relinquish to him all the right, title and interest of the United States in and to the land conveyed. The acceptance of such deed by allottee shall operate to divest him of all the right, title and interest in and to the lands allotted to every other citizen, and as his assent to such allotment.

18. The United States shall put each allottee in unrestricted possession of his allotment and shall remove therefrom all persons objectionable to him without unnecessary delay.

19. The expenses incident to the allotment of lands as herein provided shall be paid by the United States.

20. Each citizen of the Creek (or Muskogee) Nation, enrolled as herein provided, may select one hundred and sixty acres of land, as nearly as may be, conformable to Government sub-divisions, and use and occupy the same until final allotment.

21. In case two or more persons reside on the same quarter section, the parties shall have the right to divide such quarter section into forty acre tracts, conformable to the lines of the Government surveys, so as to include their respective homes.

22. Any citizen occupying land in excess of his rightful share, shall have the privilege within ninety days after the establishment of the land office to remove his houses, fences and like improvements therefrom, or make such other disposition thereof to other citizens as may be mutually satisfactory; but if he fails to remove such improvements within the time specified they shall be forfeited to the persons taking such land in allotment.

23. All reservations under the provisions of this Agreement are to revert to the Creek (or Muskogee) Nation when not needed for the purposes for which they are at present used, and shall be sold to the highest bidder, to citizens only, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, and the proceeds placed in the Sub-treasury of the United States at St. Louis, Missouri, for the benefit of the people of the Creek (or Muskogee) Nation.

24. Each Freedman enrolled as a Creek citizen as herein provided shall be entitled to one hundred and sixty acres of land, but he shall not be entitled to land or money for the purpose of equalizing his allotment in case it should be of less value than a standard allotment.

SUBURBAN LANDS.

25. All lands situated within one mile of the limits of the survey of any town located on any railroad in the Creek (or Muskogee) Nation, having more than one thousand inhabitants at the date of this Agreement, shall be subject to special allotment and shall be appraised at their true value, by the allotment committee. Any citizen having any such lands in rightful possession at the time of appraisal may take his allotment of one hundred and sixty acres thereof, by paying therefor the appraised value, less the value of one standard allotment of one hundred and sixty acres; ten per cent. to be paid within sixty days from the notice of appraisement, and fifteen per cent. additional four months thereafter, and the remainder in three equal annual installments, without interest, the indebtedness to constitute a lien on the lands in favor of the Creek (or Muskogee) Tribe, enforceable in the United States Court within the jurisdiction of which the town is located, in the same manner as vendor's liens are enforced under the laws of Arkansas, suit therefor to be brought in the name of the Principal Chief of the Creek (or Muskogee) Tribe for the benefit of citizens thereof.

26. Any citizen having any such lands in his possession and not desiring to take one hundred and sixty acres at the appraised value, may select and retain for his allotment such amount thereof, as shall be equal to one standard allotment.

27. Where the greater part of any tract of forty acres lies within such one mile limit, the whole of such tract shall be deemed to be within such limit.

28. If any such lands be not so selected for allotment within six months from date of appraisement, they shall become the common property of the Creek (or Muskogee) Tribe; and if a citizen have improvements thereon, the improvements shall be appraised, and the value thereof paid to him, and the lands and improvements shall be sold at public auction to the highest bidder, who shall be a citizen of said nation, upon the same terms and conditions as provided for payment by citizens selecting such lands in excess of their allotments.

29. All payments of money above provided for shall be made to a bonded officer, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, who shall give his receipt therefor, and the same shall be deposited in the Sub-treasury of the United States at St. Louis, Missouri, to the credit of the Creek (or Muskogee) Nation.

36. All town lots shall be appraised by said Committee, at their true present value, excluding improvements, and separate appraisements shall be made of all improvements on town lots and no such appraisements shall be effective until approved by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes; and unless all the members of the Townsite Committee shall agree upon the value of any lot, the said Commission shall fix the same.

37. Any person in rightful possession of any town lot, having substantial and valuable buildings thereon, shall have the right to purchase the same by paying one-half the amount of its appraised value in manner hereinafter prescribed.

38. If the owner of the improvements on any lot fails within sixty days to purchase and make the first payment on the same, such lot, with the improvements thereon shall be sold at public auction to the highest bidder, under the direction of said Commission, at a price not less than the true value of the lot and improvements; and the purchaser at such sale shall pay the owner of the improvements, the price at which the lot and the improvements thereon shall be sold, less one-half of the appraised value of the lot; and shall pay one half of the said appraised value of the lot, into the Sub-treasury of the United States at St. Louis, Missouri, to the credit of the Creek (or Muskogee) Tribe, under regulations to be established by said Commission, in four installments as herein provided.

41. After the completion of the appraisement of any town, the townsite committee shall at once notify the person claiming the right of occupancy of each lot or tract, of the amount at which his property has been appraised, and such person shall, within sixty days thereafter, make payment of ten per cent. of the amount due, and four months thereafter, he shall pay fifteen per cent. additional and the remainder shall be paid in three equal annual installments without interest; provided that any amounts not paid when due, shall thereafter bear interest at the rate of ten per cent. per annum until paid; and if, at the expiration of two years from the date of payment of the fifteen per cent., default in either annual payment has been made, proceedings may be commenced in the United States Court to enforce payment of all the purchase money as hereinafter provided.

42. If any inclosed or improved lands held or in possession of any citizen as his home, not heretofore laid out in town lots by him, shall be included within the survey and plat of any town, such citizen shall have the right to purchase all said inclosed or improved land so occupied as a home, at one-half of their appraised value as lots in

46. No taxes shall be assessed by any town government against any town lot not sold as herein provided, and such taxes levied against lots sold as herein provided, shall constitute a lien upon the same after the purchase price thereof has been fully paid as herein provided, and not theretofore.

47. Each Townsite Committee may select and locate a cemetery within a suitable distance from each town, to embrace not to exceed twenty acres, which it shall appraise at not less than fifty dollars per acre; and any citizen in possession thereof, shall be reimbursed for any improvements thereon belonging to him; and when the town shall have paid the amount of the appraisement, it shall be entitled to a patent for same as herein provided for titles to allottees; and said town shall dispose of same at reasonable prices in suitable lots for burial purposes, the proceeds thereof to be applied to the proper improvement and care of said cemetery.

48. All town lots or parts of lots, not exceeding, in size, fifty by one hundred and fifty feet, upon which schools, churches and the parsonages belonging thereto, have been erected, and which are occupied as such on the date of appraisement, shall be allotted to them gratis, and deeds therefor, shall be executed in proper form to the proper trustees for the use and benefit of such institutions.

51. All persons whomsoever may bid for and purchase lots sold at public auction.

52. All deferred payments of purchase money for town lots or tracts, shall constitute a lien upon the property in favor of the Creek (or Muskogee) Tribe, and if default be made in any such payments, such liens shall be enforced in the United States Courts, within the jurisdiction of which the town is located, in the same manner as vendor's liens are enforced under the laws of Arkansas, suit therefor to be brought in the name of the Principal Chief for the benefit of the tribe.

53. All sales of town lots or tracts, as herein provided, shall be made under the direction and supervision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, in such manner and at such times as may best promote the interests of the Creek (or Muskogee) Nation and the town; and said Commission shall direct the method of making payments of all moneys accruing from sales of town lots or tracts, and shall cause to be paid out of same all sums to citizens for improvements, or for other purposes, as herein provided, when the same are payable out of the Creek (or Muskogee) funds, in carrying into effect the plan herein provided for townsites and for lands within the one mile limit adjacent thereto; and the said Commission shall do and perform all other things necessary to carry into effect such plan, not herein specifically enjoined upon others. Strict account of all receipts and disbursements shall be kept and monthly itemized report thereof made to the Principal Chief and to the Secretary of the Interior.

54. The United States shall pay all expenses incident to the surveying, platting and disposition of townsites, according to the terms of this Agreement.

55. If any person, claiming the right of occupancy or ownership of any improved or unimproved lot or tract of land situated within the limits of any town, shall fail to make purchase of same as herein provided, such lot or tract shall be sold at public auction, at not less than its appraised value, after proper notice, the purchase price to be paid as herein provided.

Such notices shall be given at least thirty days before the election. No person shall be permitted to vote at such election who is not a qualified elector and owner of real or personal property, subject to taxation within the town. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
 COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
Pittsfield, Mass., February 9, 1899.

SIR: The agreement entered into by this Commission and that of the Creek Nation on the 1st instant has been forwarded to you without my signature. I deem it proper that I should state to you the reasons which compelled me to decline to sign it.

The Creeks are now under the Curtis Act and should not be removed from its operation unless their future welfare will be materially promoted thereby. I can not but feel that this agreement would result far otherwise.

It allots all the lands of the nation to citizens, making it untaxable as long as held by the allottee. It then creates an "equalizing fund" by which it proposes to make the 160-acre allotment of a portion of the citizens, not all of them (see section 24), equal to $5 an acre in value, the other portion of the citizenship, the freedmen, to have no part in this equalization. It then divides among the first-named portion of the citizens (see section 9) "all the funds of the tribe derived from all sources whatsoever." It thus strips the "nation" of every dollar of its property, real and personal, and makes the real nontaxable.

While it does this it fails to relieve the nation of any part of the burden of maintaining its present government or to provide means of any kind to meet its necessary expenditures. It indeed adds to that expenditure the cost of maintaining its reviewed courts, such as the payment of its judges, marshals, jurors, witnesses, cost of jails, etc. It fails also to make any provisions for schools, or even to recognize their necessity, for other necessary kindred institutions, for roads, bridges, public buildings, etc., which the immediate future will call for. It is therefore too plain to admit of doubt that the moment this agreement goes into effect the Creek government must rely upon a direct tax upon such personal property as can be found within its limits or upon an annual appropriation by Congress. Without one of these it will surely collapse. Everything done for education in the nation and for every other expenditure caring for the poor, the blind, and other dependents, as well as for the future development and growth of this nation, must come from direct appropriation by Congress.

In addition to all this, section 24 is in direct defiance of the pledge given by both the United States and the Creek Nation to the freedmen in article 2 of the treaty of 1866. The freedmen have the same rights in the lands and funds of the nation that any other citizen has, and I know of no reason that they should be robbed of any portion to be given to others.

There are other parts of the agreement of an unusual character, which I pass over, because those I have here considered are so serious and fatal in their effect as to compel me to withhold my signature.

I do not write this letter to antagonize my colleagues, whom I know to be sincerely devoted to what they deem for the best interests of the tribes. Nor do I intend by it to oppose the ratification by Congress of an agreement made by three out of four of the commission. I write it solely that I may make it manifest to the honorable Secretary that I was justified in declining to sign it, and I should be pleased if no other use be made of it.

I am, with great respect, truly yours,

HENRY L. DAWES.

The SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
Pittsfield Mass., February 10, 1899.

SIR: Since my letter to you of yesterday I am in receipt of one from Mr. Bixby, in Washington, informing me that he had brought the agreement with the Creeks with him there, and had forwarded it to me here for examination. I had received several days since a printed copy from the secretary of the commission, and the comments of yesterday were made from an examination of that copy. I do not find, on reexamination of the original, occasion to modify in any respect the letter of yesterday. It will be observed that I confined that letter to reasons which related solely to my own course in withholding my signature from that agreement. I would rather be excused from any "examination" of it that could be construed as passing judgment upon the work of my colleagues for whose conscientious devotion to what they believe to be for the good of the tribes no one can have a higher appreciation than myself.

The objections already mentioned relate exclusively to what appears to me to be the helpless condition in which it would place the Creek government. There are, however, other objections which I would like my colleagues to consider, if they have not already, and I will take the liberty to refer to them at this time. It seems to me that the general effect of the agreement is reactionary rather than progressive. It is undoing what the Curtis Act to the extent of its provisions, with the effect of not taking a step in advance, but on the contrary, relieving the Creeks of some of its most salutary provisions. Take a single illustration, not the only one by any means, I do not know what considerations could have led to the revival of the Indian courts. It is true that some of the worst features of their jurisdiction are omitted. Still the presence of the old courts with any jurisdiction and with all the scandals attached to them seems to me an unnecessary step backward. They are already extinguished in both the Creek and Cherokee nations, and the Cherokees agree (in their proposed agreement) to let them remain extinguished. Indeed, my information from all parts of the two nations in this respect is one of relief. The United States courts are everywhere giving satisfaction. Even this agreement proposes new terms in several places. New commissioners are located at convenient places, who will be useless if this agreement prevails.

This seems to be copied from the Choctaw agreement. But that was not a revival of an extinguished court, but an improvement on an old one as it then existed, and went as far as it was then thought possible to go. I believe that it is now generally regretted that it did not go further.

I very much desire that both the Creeks and the Cherokees would enter into an agreement making two slight modifications of the Curtis act and nothing more, to wit, changing its allotments into a fee, and simplifying the town-site provision along the lines of that in the Cherokee agreement.

If they will not now consent to that I would wait till they saw the benefit of such a change. I would not modify that law farther.

I feel that it is the duty of the Government to keep its face steadily to the future and take no step backward.

I omitted yesterday to inquire whether the Creeks have outstanding debts, and what would be their condition if they have such debts against them?

With great respect, I am, truly yours,

HENRY L. DAWES.

The Honorable
