George A. Low, being duly sworn, says, that he is one of the firm of C. Adolphe Low & Co., who are importers and dealers in East India goods, in the city of San Francisco, California; that about the month of October, 1867, said firm received the within bill or voucher from Abraham Weinschenk in payment for goods by them sold and delivered to him; that said firm took said bill in good faith and for a valuable consideration; and after careful inquiry as to the correctness of said bill, and as to the regularity and form of said bill, said firm made careful inquiry of military officers of the United States Government, and were by them informed that the same was correct in form and duly verified. And he further says, that the said bill is the only one held by said firm, and that they are not dealers or speculators in such claims, or any claims of that character, but received this in due and regular course of business.
