ABRAHAM LANDES.

MARCH 28, 1892.—Committed to the Committee of the Whole House and ordered to be printed.

Mr. WILSON, of Missouri, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany H. R. 3120.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 3120) to pension Abraham Landes, have considered the same, and report:

The records of the War Department show that the claimant was enrolled May 19, 1832, in Capt. B. W. Finch's Company, Michigan Militia Infantry, Black Hawk War, and discharged as a private June 25, 1832.

In his petition the claimant swears he is 83 years old, unable to do any manual labor to support himself and wife, and without pecuniary means from which an income can be derived.

Dr. T. W. Harris, of Eugene, Oregon, certifies that by reason of the infirmities of age Mr. Landes can do no work.

Rodney Scott, county judge of Lane County, Oregon, corroborates the foregoing as to the claimant's age and physical disabilities, and states that Mr. Landes has no property other than a house and lot in Eugene, Lane County, Oregon, which produces no income, and that he has no means of support aside from his labor, which he is unable to perform. Judge Scott also certifies that the claimant is an honest, upright, deserving citizen.

These facts are also shown by the testimony of C. V. Peters and Chester E. Combs, citizens of Lane County, Oregon.

The bill is returned, with the recommendation that it do pass.

Amend by striking out the words "twenty-five," in lines 3 and 4, and inserting in lieu thereof the word "twelve." Also, by changing the name of the captain of the company to "Benjamin W. Finch."
