- For trust-fund interest due Menomonees, $650; in all...

That no purchase of supplies for which appropriations are herein made, exceeding in the aggregate $500 in value at any one time shall be made without first giving at least three weeks' public notice by advertisement, except in case of exigency, when, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, who shall make official record of the facts constituting the exigency, and shall report the same to Congress at its next session; that no such purchases may be made in open market, at a rate not exceeding $3,000: Provided, That funds herein and heretofore appropriated for construction of ditches and other works for irrigating may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, be expended in open market: Provided further, That purchases in open market may be made from Indians, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, to an amount not exceeding $3,000.

That so much of the appropriations herein made as may be required to pay for goods and supplies, and for transportation of the same, for the year ending June 30, 1887, shall be immediately available; but no such goods or supplies shall be distributed or delivered to any of said Indians prior to July 1, 1886; and the Secretary of the Interior, under the direction of the President, may use any surplus that may remain in any of the said appropriations herein made for the purchase of subsistence for the several Indian tribes, to an amount not exceeding $25,000 in the aggregate, to supply any subsistence deficiency that may occur: Provided, however, That funds appropriated to fulfill treaty obligations shall not be used: And provided further, That any directions which may be issued under authority of this section shall be reported in detail, and the reasons therefor, to Congress, at the session of Congress next succeeding such diversion: And provided further, That the Secretary of the Interior, under the direction of the President, may use any surplus appropriated in this act for subsistence, and not absolutely necessary for that purpose, for the purchase of stock cattle for the benefit of the tribe for which such appropriation is made, or for the assistance of such Indians to become farmers, and shall report to Congress, at its next session thereafter, an account of his action under this provision.

That when not required for the purpose for which appropriated, the funds herein provided for the pay of special employees at any agency may be used by the Secretary of the Interior for the pay of other employees at such agency, but no deficiency shall be thereby created; and, when necessary, special employees may be detailed for other service when not required for duty for which they were engaged; and that the several appropriations herein made for millers, blacksmiths, engineers, carpenters, physicians, and other persons, and for various articles provided for by treaty stipulations for the several tribes, may be diverted to other uses for the several tribes, respectively, within the discretion of the President, and with the consent of said tribes, expressed in the usual manner; and that he cause report to be made to Congress, at its next session thereafter, of his action under this provision.

That advertising for bids for supplies shall be in accordance with section 3 of this act, those received for any article contain conditions detrimental to the interest of the Government, they may be rejected, and the articles specified in such bids purchased in open market, at prices not to exceed those of the lowest bidder, and not at a price higher than the same, until such time as satisfactory bids can be obtained, for which immediate advertisement shall be made.

That at any of the Indian reservations where there is now on hand Government property not required for the use and benefit of the Indians at said reservations, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to remove such property to other reservations where it may be required, or to sell it and apply the proceeds of the same in the purchase of such articles as may be needed for the use of the Indians for whom said property was purchased, and he shall make report of his action hereunder to the next session of Congress thereafter.

SEC. 2. That in places where harbor-lines have not been established, and where posts of debris of mines or stamp works can be made without injury to navigation, within lines to be established by the Secretary of War, said officer may, and is hereby authorized to, cause such lines to be established; and within such lines such deposits may be made, under regulations to be from time to time prescribed by him.

SEC. 3. It shall be lawful to cast, throw, empty, or unladen, either from or out of any ship, vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, or from the shore, pier, wharf, or mills of any kind whatever, any ballast, stone, slate, gravel, earth, slack, rubbish, wreck, fitch, slabs, edging, planks, sawdust, bag, or cinders, or other refuse or mill-waste of any kind, into New York Harbor: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to the casting out, unluding, or throwing out of any ship or vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, any stones, rocks, bricks, lime, or other materials used, or to be used, in or toward the building, repairing, or keeping in repair any quay, pier, wharf, weir, bridge, building, or other work lawfully erected or to be erected on the banks or sides of said harbor, or to the casting out unloading or depositing of any material excavated for the improvement of navigable waters, into such places and in such maner as may be deemed by the United States officer supervising the improvement of said harbor most judicious and practicable and for the best interests of such improvement.

SEC. 4. The Secretary of War shall prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary to secure a judicious and economical expenditure of the money herein appropriated, and shall cause to be made and submitted to Congress annual reports, together with maps and plans, including the report of the Mississippi River Commission, on or before December first, giving detailed statements of the work done, contracts made, the expenditures thereunder or otherwise, and balances of money on hand up to November i, and the effect of such work, together with such recommendations as he may deem proper. He shall, at the same time, report to Congress all cases in which piers, breakwaters, locks, and dams, or other structures or works built or made by the United States in aid of commerce or navigation are used, occupied, or injured by a corporation or an individual, and the extent and mode of such use, occupation, or injury.
He shall report, at the same time, whether any bridges, causeways, or structures now erected or in process of erection do or will interfere with free and safe navigation.

SEC. 5. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of War to apply the same money appropriated for improvements other than surveys and estimates, in carrying on the various works, by contract or otherwise, as may be most economical and advantageous to the Government. Where said works are done by contract, such contract shall be made, after sufficient public advertisement for proposals, in such manner and form as the Secretary shall prescribe; and such contracts shall be made with the lowest responsible bidders, accompanied by such securities as the Secretary of War shall require, conditioned for the faithful prosecution and completion of the work according to such contract, and for the prompt payment of all liabilities incurred in the process therefor labor and material.

Sec. 7. For examinations, surveys, and contingencies, and for incidental repairs, for which there is no special appropriation, for rivers and harbors .............................................. 100,000 00

Provided, That no survey shall be made of any harbor or river until the Chief of Engineers shall have directed a preliminary examination of the same by the local engineer in charge of the district, or an engineer detailed for the purpose; and such local or detailed engineer shall report to said Chief of Engineers, whether, in his opinion, said harbor or river is worthy of improvement, and shall state in such report fully and particularly the facts and reasons on which he bases such opinion, including the present and prospective demands of commerce; and it shall be the duty of the Chief of Engineers to direct the making of such surveys; if, in his opinion, the harbor or river proposed to be surveyed is worthy of improvement by the general Government; and he shall report to the Secretary of War the facts, and what public necessity or convenience may be subserved thereby, together with the full reports of the local engineer.

Said reports of preliminary examinations and surveys shall be made to the House of Representatives, and are hereby ordered to be printed when so made.

Sec. 8. That the Secretary of War shall report to Congress, at its next and each succeeding session thereof, the name and place of residence of such civilian engineer employed in the work of improving rivers and harbors by means and as the result of appropriations made in this and succeeding river and harbor appropriation bills, the time so employed, the compensation paid, and the place at and work on which employed.

Total ........................................................................................................................................... $14,473,900 00
By the act to provide for closing up the business and paying the expenses of the Court of Commissioners of Alabama Claims, and for other purposes.

That the proper accounting and disbursing officers of the Treasury be, and they are hereby, authorized and directed to audit and pay the necessary and proper expenses of the said court, and to pay the salaries of the clerks, officers, and employes of the said court, and cost of operating the said court, and of paying the expenses of the said court, and all other necessary expenses of said court, to be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and to hereinafter out of the unappropriated moneys of the Genova award fund.

Sec. 2. That the said accounting officers are hereby also authorized to allow to Andrew H. Allen, in the settlement of his accounts with the Treasury Department under his appointment as disbursing agent, made by the Secretary of State on July twentieth, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, all sums of money which he may have paid, covered by vouchers approved and certified as described in the preceding section, and also compensate for his services as such disbursing agent, at the rate fixed by the Secretary of State in his letter of May second, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, up to the first day of January, eighteen hundred and eighty-six, as far as he has not already been paid.

Sec. 3. That the powers of the clerk of the said court are hereby extended for an additional period, not to exceed six months from and after the termination of said court, on the first day of January, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, for the purpose of closing up the business of his office, and for depositing the records, documents, and all other papers of the court or its officers in the office of the Secretary of State, as provided in the act re-establishing said court, and the act therein referred to; and said clerk may pay to any such assistants as he may deem necessary for the purpose of enabling him to carry into effect the provisions of this act, not to exceed in number those herefore employed, said assistants to be paid monthly, at the same rate of compensation herefofe paid them, from and after said thirty-first day of December, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, on vouchers approved by said clerk, under the direction of the Secretary of State, from said Genova award fund; and all disbursements shall be made by said clerk, under the direction of the Secretary of State.

The Secretary of State is hereby authorized and directed to make sale of all furniture and other property in and about the building used and occupied by the said court, and which were procured for the use of the court, and the officers and employes thereof, at such time and place and in such manner as he shall deem most advantageous to the Government, and to cover the proceeds of such sale into the Treasury.

That the amount which shall be paid out and distributed in payment and satisfaction of the judgments of the first and second class which are now existing as rendered by the said court against the Genova award fund, and in payment of the expenses, salaries, and other outlays contemplated and provided for in this act, and in the act re-establishing the said court, approved June 5, 1882, shall be ascertained in the following manner: To the sum of $7,703,004.98, this being the amount of the said Genova award fund remaining in the Treasury, as disclosed by the Treasury report of June 30, 1877, and the letter of the Secretary of the Treasury to the chairman of the Committee on the House of Representatives, dated April 22, 1884, shall be added the premium realized from the sale of certain bonds in which the said fund was invested, namely, the sum of $585,100.67, making $10,289,004.65; and to this sum shall further be added the estimated value of the furniture and property, as provided for in section 4 of this act; and from the aggregate sum so ascertained shall be subtracted the estimated cost of the services and expenses provided for being estimated in section 4 of this act, and also the amount provided for in section 1 of this act, together with all other expenses of the court; and from the amount so ascertained shall be further deducted the aggregate of the judgments of the first class which have already been paid, and the balance shall be applied as follows: First, to the payment of the judgments of the first class yet remaining unpaid as provided in said act, approved June 5, 1882, and the residue shall be paid out and distributed pro rata upon the judgments in favor of classes as provided in said last mentioned sections, as the judgments of the first class so ascertained as aforesaid are, for the purpose of making the payment aforesaid, hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

By the act to increase the Naval establishment.

That the President is hereby authorized to have constructed, as hereinafter provided—

First, Two screw-going double-bottomed armored vessels of about 6,000 tons displacement, designed for a speed of at least 16 amos an hour, with engines having all necessary appliances for working under forced draught, and costing, including engines and machi—chinery and excluding armament, not more than $2,500,000 each. Said vessels shall have each a complete tornado outfit and be armed in the most effective manner.

Second. One protected double-bottomed cruiser of not less than 5,500 nor more than 5,000 tons displacement, designed to have the highest practicable speed and furnished with the best type of modern engines, furnished with necessary appliances for working under forced draughts, the vessel shall cost, including engines and machinery and excluding armament, not exceeding $1,500,000.

Third. One first class torpedo boat, costing in the aggregate not more than $100,000.

SEC. 2. That the vessels hereinbefore authorized to be constructed shall be built at the Government expense; that the Government shall determine the plans and specifications of the vessels to be constructed, and the Government may construct the same, or any portion thereof, in the navy-yards of the United States:

SEC. 3. That the President hereby authorized to direct the completion, as hereafter provided, of the six monitors mentioned, and the Secretary of the Navy shall be unable to obtain the same at fair prices, in which case he may construct the same, or any portion thereof, in the navy-yards of the United States:

Provided, That the Secretary of the Navy may purchase abroad only such shafting as it may be impossible to obtain in the United States in time for use in the construction of the vessels hereinbefore provided for.

SEC. 4. That theSecretary of the Navy shall not contract for the construction or completion of any of said vessels, or of their engines, machinery, or boilers, until drawings and specifications have been provided or adopted by the Secretary of the Navy that within three months from the date of the contract he will be possessed of the necessary plant for the performance of the work in the United States which he shall offer to undertake, and such contract shall be to the lowest and best responsible bidder or bidders, after at least sixty days' advertisement, published in five leading papers in the United States, inviting proposals for the work proposed, which work shall be subject to all such rules, regulations, supervision, and provisions as to buildings and security for the quality and due completion of the work as the Secretary of the Navy shall prescribe; and no vessel, boiler, engine, machinery, or portion thereof shall be accepted unless completed in strict conformity with the contract; and the authority given hereby shall take effect at once.

The Secretary of the Navy shall have the power to reject any or all bids made under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 8. That the sum of $1,000,000 is hereby appropriated toward the armament of the vessels authorized by the act of March 3, 1885, of the vessels authorized by section 1 of this act, and of the unfinished monitors previously mentioned of the Navy that within three months from the date of the contract he will be possessed of the necessary plant for the performance of the work in the United States which he shall offer to undertake, and such contract shall be to the lowest and best responsible bidder or bidders, after at least sixty days' advertisement, published in five leading papers in the United States, inviting proposals for the work proposed, which work shall be subject to all such rules, regulations, supervision, and provisions as to buildings and security for the quality and due completion of the work as the Secretary of the Navy shall prescribe; and no vessel, boiler, engine, machinery, or portion thereof shall be accepted unless completed in strict conformity with the contract; and the authority given hereby shall take effect at once.

The Secretary of the Navy shall have the power to reject any or all bids made under the provisions of this act.

Provided, That the Secretary of the Navy may contract for the construction of such portion of the heavy guns hereinbefore provided for as may be built by the Government.

SEC. 9. That the Secretary of the Navy is hereby authorized to contract with the Pneumatic Dynamite-Gun Company of New York for one dynamite-gun cruiser, as follows: Said cruiser to be not less than two hundred and thirty feet long, twenty-six feet beam, breadth of beam seven and one-half feet draught, three thousand two hundred horse power, and guaranteed to attain a speed of twelve knots, and to be equipped with three armed dynamite guns of ten and one-half inch caliber, and guaranteed to throw shells containing two hundred pounds of dynamite or other high explosives at least one mile, each gun to be capable of being discharged once in two
As heretofore provided, the said appraised values.

That a fire-proof building, for the accommodation of the Library of Congress, shall be severable premises as specified in the appraisement of said court, or pay into court, by commission is hereby authorized and required to pay to the several owners, or to such persons authorized as aforesaid, the appraised value of the several premises as specified in the appraisement of said court, or pay into court, by deposit, as hereinafter provided, the said appraised values.

That the fee-simple of all premises so appropriated for public use of which no appropriation shall have been made, or for which no deposit has been made, shall be vested in the United States; and said inspectors as the Secretary of the Navy may for that purpose appoint, residing 30 per cent on all such payments until the whole work is completed and accepted by the Secretary of the Navy.

The Pneumatic Dynamite-Gun Company shall furnish bonds satisfactory to the Secretary of the Navy for the faithful performance of its contract, and for the full amount of the non-performance of the same, and shall further agree with the Secretary of the Navy upon a limit of price which shall not be exceeded in any future contracts which the Government may desire to enter into for the purchase of the company's guns.

Sec. 10. That towards the construction and completion of the vessels hereinafter mentioned, including the vessel and guns mentioned in section 9, the sum of $2,500,000 is hereby appropriated, of which not more $75,000 may be expended in manufacturing, purchasing, and experimenting with torpedoes of domestic manufacture and not exceeding $5,000,000 may be expended in the construction or improvement of any such vessels as the Secretary of the Navy, in the opinion of the Librarian of Congress, may be necessary for the service of the Navy, in improving the plant of such of the navy-yards as he may select.

That a fire-proof building, for the accommodation of the Library of Congress, shall be erected east of the Capitol, and either between B street north and East Capitol street and First street east and Second street east, or between B street south and East Capitol street and Second street east, and said appraised value in said court to the extent of the building, shall be in charge of a commission composed of the Secretary of the Interior, the Architect of the Capitol Extension and the Librarian of Congress, who shall be authorized and directed to make contracts for the construction thereof, after proper advertisements and the reception of bids; and the sum of $500,000 is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to commence the construction of said building; and the moneys appropriated for said building shall be disbursed by the Secretary of the Interior.

That a site shall be appropriated for a building for the Library of Congress, so much of the land situated east of the Capitol grounds above described shall be purchased by said commission, or taken for public use as hereinafter provided, and not less than the whole of that portion bounded on the north by B street north, on the east by Second street east, and on the west by First street east; or if that portion should not be so purchased or taken for public use, then the whole of that portion bounded on the north by East Capitol street, on the east by Second street east, on the south by B street south, and on the west by First street east; and a sum of money sufficient to pay for said land, in the mode hereinafter provided, is hereby appropriated therefor out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 5. That said commission shall be authorized to purchase said land, or any part thereof, as soon as practicable, on such prices as may be fixed by agreement between said commission and the respective owners: Provided, however, That said commission shall not pay in the aggregate for the site aforesaid, including the whole of said land as described lying north of East Capitol street, or the whole as described lying south of East Capitol street, in excess of $550,000; and if they are not able to purchase the whole of either portion of said land, they may purchase any parcels thereof, for sums not exceeding, in their best judgment, that proportion of $550,000 which the value of the parcel or parcels purchased bears to the value of the whole land; and the payment thereof shall be made to the respective owners, on the requisition of the Secretary of the Interior, upon the release and conveyance of said land to the United States by good and sufficient deeds executed in due form of law: And provided further, That no money hereby appropriated shall be expended for the purchase of said land, or any part thereof, or for the erection thereon of said library building, until the written opinion of the Attorney-General shall be had in favor of the validity of the title to said land...

Sec. 4. That if said commission shall be unable to purchase the whole of said land lying north of East Capitol street, or the whole as described lying south of East Capitol street, by agreement with the respective owners, within thirty days after the passage of this act, within the limitations prescribed by this act, they shall, at the expiration of such period of thirty days, make application to the supreme court of the District of Columbia for an order to file, by petition containing a particular description of the property required, with the name of the owner or owners thereof, and his, her, or their residence, as far as the same can be ascertained, which court is hereby authorized and required, upon such application, without delay, to ascertain and assess the damages occasioned by the taking of said land to each owner thereof, or to any person having a legal claim to said damages, in the manner provided with reference to the taking of land for highways in the District of Columbia.

Sec. 5. That the fee-simple of all premises so appropriated for public use of which an appropriation shall have been made, or for which no deposit has been made, shall be vested in the United States; and said owners or owners refuse or neglect for fifteen days after the said assessment to pay the cash value of said assessments by said court to the demand of the same from the Secretary of the Interior, upon depositing the said appraised value in said court to the credit of such owner or owners, respectively, as vested in the United States; and said commission is hereby authorized and required to pay to the several owner or owners, respectively, or to such persons authorized as aforesaid, the appraised value of the several premises as specified in the appraisement of said court, or pay into court, by deposit, as hereinafter provided, the said appraised values.
110 APPROPRIATIONS, NEW OFFICES, ETC.

SEC. 6. That said court may direct the time and manner in which possession of the property condemned shall be taken or delivered, and may, if necessary, enforce any order or issuance. The cost occasioned by the inquiry and assessment shall be paid by the United States; and as to other costs which may arise they shall be charged or taxed as the court may direct.

SEC. 7. That no delay in making an assessment of compensation, or in taking possession, shall be allowed, on any ground, which may arise as to the ownership of the property, or any part thereof, or as to the interests of the respective owners. In such cases the court shall require a deposit of the money allowed as compensation for the whole property or the part in dispute. In all cases as soon as the United States shall have paid the compensation, or secured its payment by a deposit of money under the order of the court, possession of the property may be taken.

SEC. 8. That the Secretary of the Interior shall annually report to Congress at the commencement of each session a detailed statement of all the proceedings under the provisions of this act.

By the act for the allowance of certain claims reported by the accounting officers of the United States Treasury Department.
