That for the examinations and surveys herein provided for, and for incidental repairs of harbors, for which there is no special appropriation.

It shall be lawful for the Arkansas River Transfer Railway Company, a corporation having authority under the laws of the State of Arkansas, to build a railway from some suitable point in the city of Little Rock across the Arkansas River to some suitable point in the town of Argenta, all being in the county of Pulaski, in said State, to build a railway transit and wagon bridge across said river, and that when constructed all trains of all railways terminating at the Arkansas River at or near the location of said bridge, and all foot passengers, animals and vehicles shall be allowed to cross said bridge for a reasonable compensation, to be paid to the owners thereof; and in case of any litigation arising from any obstruction or alleged obstruction to the free navigation of said river, the cause may be tried before the district court of the United States in and for the eastern district of the State of Arkansas.

That any bridge built under the provisions of this act may, at the option of the company building the same, be built as a draw-bridge, with a pivot, or with unbroken or continuous spans: Provided, That if said bridge shall be made with unbroken or continuous spans, it shall not be in any case of a less elevation than 50 feet above extreme high-water mark, as understood at the point of location, to the bottom chord of the bridge, nor shall the span over the main channel of the river be less than 250 feet, nor shall there be a greater number of spans than four crossing the remaining width of said river, and the piers of said bridge shall all be parallel with the current of said river; And provided also, That if any bridge shall be constructed under this act as a draw-bridge, the same shall be a pivot-draw over the main channel, with spans of not less than 160 feet in the clear on each side of the center or pivot pier of said bridge, and that there shall not be a greater number of fixed spans than four crossing the remaining width of said river, and said bridge shall not be less than 10 feet above high-water mark, as understood at the location of said bridge, measuring to the bottom chord of said bridge, and all the piers of said bridge shall be parallel with the current of said River: And provided also, That said draw shall be opened promptly, upon reasonable signal, for the passage of boats whose construction shall not be such as to admit of their passage under said bridge, except when a railroad train is passing over the same; but in no case shall any unnecessary delay occur in opening the draw after the passage of said train.
That any bridge constructed under this act and according to its provisions shall be a lawful structure, and shall be recognized and known as a post-route, upon which no higher charge shall be made for transmission over the same of the mails, the troops, and munitions of war of the United States than the rate paid for their transportation over the roads or public highways leading to said bridge; and the United States shall have the right of way for telegraph purposes across said bridge.

That said bridge shall not be built or commenced until the railway company aforesaid shall submit to the Secretary of War, for his approval, a plan with the necessary drawings of the work to be performed, showing the above requirements, or until he shall approve the plan and location of said bridge, and notify the company of the same in writing.

And should any change be made in the plan of the bridge during the progress of the work thereon, such change shall be subject likewise to the approval of the Secretary of War at all times so as to conform to the reasonable and proper means for the passage of vessels through or under said structure; and said structure shall be changed, at the cost and expense of the owners thereof, from time to time as Congress may direct, so as to preserve the free and convenient navigation of said river; and the authority to erect and continue said bridge shall be subject to revocation or modification by law, whenever the public good shall, in the judgment of Congress, so require, without any expense or charge to the United States.

That the right to alter or amend this act, so as to prevent or remove all material obstructions to the navigation of said river by the construction of said bridge, without expense to the United States, and also, to repeal this act, is hereby expressly reserved.

That the fourth and succeeding sections of an act entitled "An act making appropriations for the repair, preservation, and completion of certain public works on rivers and harbors, and for other purposes" approved March 3, 1875, authorizing James B. Eads and his associates to construct a channel between the South Pass of the Mississippi River and the Gulf of Mexico, and they are hereby, amended so as to provide in lieu of the payments therein provided, that payment of said Eads or his legal representatives shall be made as follows, namely:

The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrant on the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States in favor of said James B. Eads or his legal representatives for the sum of $750,000, which said sum is hereby appropriated; and the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay to said Eads or his legal representatives, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum for which said warrant is drawn.

When a channel shall have been obtained by the action of the jetties and auxiliary works authorized by said act 25 feet in depth, and not less than 300 feet in width at the bottom, there shall be paid $500,000.

When a channel shall have been obtained through the jetties 30 feet in depth, not less than 200 hundred feet in width at the bottom, there shall be paid $500,000.

When a channel 30 feet in depth, without regard to width, shall have been obtained through the jetties, there shall be paid $500,000; and the $1,000,000 provided by the said act, together with the $750,000 provided for by the amended act, be earned by said Eads and his associates, and the same, with interest, shall be paid to said Eads or his legal representatives, at the times and in the manner provided by said act.

The $100,000 per annum provided by said recited act to be paid to said Eads and his associates during a period of 20 years shall be paid at the times and in the manner therein provided, upon the maintenance by said Eads and his associates of a channel through the jetties 25 feet in depth, not less than 200 hundred feet in width at the bottom, and having through it a central depth 30 feet without regard to width.

Nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to repeal or in any wise affect the provisions of the amendatory act approved June 10, 1875, by which said Eads is entitled to receive certain moneys to pay for materials furnished, labor done, and expenses incurred in the construction of the work at the mouth of the Mississippi River, in case the bridge before-recited act, approved March 3, 1875, except as the same is hereby expressly modified or amended, or has by act herefore passed been modified or amended, shall be and remain in full force, and have the same effect as if this act had not been passed.

It shall be the duty of the President to appoint an additional associate justice of the supreme court, in manner now provided by law, who shall hold his office for the term of four years, and until his successor is appointed and qualified.

By the act (No. 98) to provide for taking the tenth and subsequent censuses.

There shall be established in the Department of the Interior an office to be denominated the Census Office, the chief officer of which shall be called the Superintendent of the Census.
The Superintendent of the Census shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate; and he shall receive an annual salary of $5,000; and the Secretary of the Interior may appoint a chief clerk of the Census Office, six clerks of class four, ten clerks of class three, fifteen clerks of class two, with such number of clerks of class one and of copyists and computers, at salaries of not less than $700 or more than $1,000, as may be found necessary for the proper and prompt compilation and publication of the results of the enumeration of the census herein provided to be taken. And upon such compilation and publication of said census, said office of Superintendent shall cease, and the period of service of said clerks shall end.

The Secretary of the Interior shall, on or before the first day of March, 1880, designate the number, whether one or more, of supervisors of census, to be appointed within each State or Territory, who shall be residents of the State or Territory. The supervisors shall be appointed by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The total number of such supervisors shall not exceed one hundred and fifty.

Each supervisor of census shall be charged with the performance, within his own district, of the following duties: To propose to the Superintendent of Census the apportionment of his district into subdivisions most convenient for the purpose of enumeration; to designate to the Superintendent of Census suitable persons, and, with the consent of said Superintendent, to employ such persons as enumerators within his district, one for each subdivision, and resident therein, who shall be selected solely with reference to their fitness, and without reference to their political or party affiliations, according to the appointment approved by the Superintendent of Census.

Each supervisor of census shall, upon the completion of his duties to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Interior, receive the sum of $500 in full compensation for all services rendered and expenses incurred by him, except an allowance for clerk hire may be made, at the discretion of the Superintendent of Census.

The compensation of enumerators shall be ascertained and fixed as follows: In subdivisions where the Superintendent of Census shall deem such an allowance sufficient, an allowance not exceeding two cents for each living inhabitant, two cents for each death reported, ten cents for each farm, and fifteen cents for each establishment of productive industry enumerated and returned, may be given in full compensation for all services; and no claim for mileage or traveling expenses shall be allowed in such subdivisions: Provided, That the subdivisions to which the above rate of compensation shall apply must be designated by the Superintendent of Census at least one month in advance of the enumeration; and no account of the time occupied in enumeration shall be required for the purpose of ascertaining and determining the compensation of enumerators in such subdivisions. For all other subdivisions rates of compensation shall be fixed in advance of the enumeration by the Superintendent of Census, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, according to the difficulty of enumeration, having reference to the nature of the region to be canvassed, and the density or sparseness of settlement, or other considerations pertinent thereto; but the compensation allowed to any enumerator in any district east of the one hundredth meridian shall not exceed an average of four dollars per day of ten hours actual field-work each; and the compensation allowed to any enumerator in any district west of the one hundredth meridian shall not exceed six dollars per working day of equal length.

By the act (No. 47) to fix the pay of letter-carriers.

There shall be in all cities which contain a population of 75,000 or more, two classes of letter-carriers, to be fixed by the Postmaster-General.
The salaries of carriers of the first class, who shall have been in service at least one year, shall be $1,000 per annum, and the salaries of the carriers of the second class shall be $800 per annum. In all cities containing a population of less than 75,000 there shall be one class of letter-carriers, who shall receive a salary of $650 per annum.
Upon the recommendation of the postmaster of any city, the Postmaster-General may establish a third grade of letter-carriers, known as auxiliaries, who shall be paid at the rate of $400 per annum.
Appointments of letter-carriers in cities having two or more classes shall be made to the class having the minimum rate of pay, and promotions from the lower grades in said cities shall be made to the higher grades to fill vacancies, after one or more years' service, on certificate of the postmaster to the efficiency and faithfulness of the candidate during the preceding year: Provided, however, That at no time shall the number of carriers in the first class, receiving the maximum salary of $1,000, be more than two-thirds or less than one-half the whole number of carriers actually in service in the city in which they are employed: Provided, further, That no boxes for the collection of mail-matter by carriers shall be placed inside of any building except a public building or railroad station.
Amount of increase is indefinite.

By the act (No. 85) making appropriations for sundry civil expenses of the government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1880, and for other purposes.
The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized during the present fiscal year, to pay, out of the appropriation for refunding the national debt, a reasonable additional compensation to the clerks of his department who are actually employed upon the refunding of the national debt in addition to the usual business hours, and not exceeding $500 shall be allowed to any one individual, nor shall the aggregate of such allowances exceed $10,000.

Under the Department of the Interior:
Public buildings: Hereafter the disbursing clerk of the Department of the Interior is hereby required to act as disbursing clerk of the Architect of the Capitol, and to disburse all moneys appropriated for the United States Capitol extension and improvement of the grounds, and to receive an annual compensation of $1,000, to be paid out of said appropriation.

By the act (No. 90) making appropriations for the payment of the arrears of pensions granted by act of Congress approved January 25, 1879, and for other purposes.
Pension agents shall receive for their services and expenses in paying the arrears upon pensions allowed previous to January 25, 1879, including postage on the vouchers and checks sent to the pensioners, 30 cents for each payment.
