LEGISLATIVE, EXECUTIVE, AND JUDICIAL APPROPRIATION BILL.

JANUARY 26, 1893.—Committed to the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union and ordered to be printed.

Mr. DOCKERY, from the Committee on Appropriations, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany H. R. 10331.]

In presenting the bill making appropriations for the legislative, executive, and judicial expenses of the Government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1894, the Committee on Appropriations submit the following in explanation thereof:

The estimates on which the bill is based will be found on pages 9-68 and 77-83 of the Book of Estimates for 1894, aggregating $22,625,815.81, of which amount there is recommended in the bill $21,684,498.82.

The appropriations for the same purposes for the current fiscal year aggregate $21,900,132.97, being $215,634.15 more than is recommended in the bill for the service of the fiscal year 1894.

The amount recommended in the bill is $941,316.99 less than the aggregate estimates submitted. The whole number of salaries specifically provided for in the bill is 10,618, being 224 less than the number estimated for and 116 less than the number provided for in the law for the current year.

Changes in the number or grade of officers or employes of the Government and their rate of compensation, as compared with the current law, are recommended in the bill as follows:

SENATE.

The 37 clerks to Senators who are not chairmen of committees, at $6 per day during the session, for whom $26,862 was appropriated for the current year and $44,520 estimated for the ensuing year, are omitted.

Otherwise the bill appropriates for the officers, clerks, and other employes in the service of the Senate in the same terms as provided in the law for the current year, except that for session employes the usual increase is made in their aggregate compensation growing out of the longer time that they will be employed during the ensuing session as compared with the present session of Congress.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The amount for compensation of members is increased $80,000, so as to provide for the additional members authorized under the last apportionment act.

A reduction is made of the assistant clerk to the Committee on War Claims at $1,200.

Otherwise the bill appropriates for the officers, clerks, and other employes in the service of the House in the same terms as the law for the current year provides, except that for session employes the usual increase is made in their aggregate compensation, growing out of the longer period of time that they will be employed during the ensuing session as compared with the present session of Congress.
