THOMAS W. NEWTON, ASSIGNEE OF ROBERT CRITTENDEN.

MARCH 31, 1830.

Mr. WHITTLESEY, from the Committee of Claims, made the following

REPORT :

The Committee of Claims, to which was referred by resolution the claim of Robert Crittenden, report:

That it is testified to by Benjamin Pattin, that he was the Lieutenant in a company of Kentucky Guards, in the Seminole war, commanded by the said Robert Crittenden; that the claimant had two horses in the service, one of which was lost about the middle of May, 1818, and the other towards the last of said month, for the want of forage—valued at two hundred and thirty dollars. He states that the horses were taken into the United States' service on the 26th day of January, 1818, and continued in it until they were lost as mentioned. In a communication made by Captain Crittenden, he states that he has assigned the claim to Thomas W. Newton, for whose convenience the committee will report a bill in his name, as the evidence brings the case within the provisions of the act of May 4th, 1822.
