OF THE

PUBLIC DOCUMENTS

OF THE

FIFTY-FIFTH CONGRESS

AND OF OTHER DEPARTMENTS OF THE

GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES

FOR THE PERIOD FROM

JULY 1, 1897, TO JUNE 30, 1899

[Being the "Comprehensive Index" provided for by the act approved January 12, 1895]

Prepared under the supervision of the
SUPERINTENDENT OF DOCUMENTS
GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE

WASHINGTON
1901
This, the fourth volume of the Document Catalogue (Comprehensive Index), includes all documents and reports submitted to Congress March 4, 1897, to March 4, 1899, without regard to the time when they were printed; and in addition thereto, all publications of the Executive Departments, bureaus, and offices of the Government, issued during the two fiscal years—July 1, 1897, to June 30, 1899.

This departure from the rule requiring the Document Catalogue to be printed each regular session of Congress was approved by the Public Printer, and was due to the fact that all the matter for the three sessions of Congress being in hand when the same was ready for the printer it was deemed best to include the whole in one volume. By thus placing the entries of the three sessions in one alphabet, it is believed that this volume will prove more useful and convenient than any heretofore published.

The same system of abbreviations as used in the preceding volume has been incorporated in entries for committee reports to accompany the several numbered series of bills and resolutions. These abbreviations are as follows: S. and H. for Senate and House bills; S. R. and H. R. for Senate and House simple resolutions; S. J. R. and H. J. R. for Senate and House joint resolutions; and S. C. R. and H. C. R. for Senate and House concurrent resolutions.

At the end of this volume, as in previous numbers, will be found, arranged in a single alphabet, a list of Government authors consisting of those Departments, bureaus, and offices of the United States Government which are represented by entries in this number of the Document Catalogue. In addition to this, the same material is arranged in another list by Executive Departments, independent offices, etc., with alphabetical lists of subordinate bureaus and offices under each. In these arrangements will be found also alphabetical lists of the Senate and House Committees that submitted reports during this Congress.

It has been customary in the Document Catalogues to include in the same catalogue, entries for a certain volume and for all "separates" therefrom, no matter if the "separates" and the volume of which they form parts were published in periods that are covered by different catalogues. This treatment is adopted in order to avoid, when possible, entering the same matter in two catalogues.

For the benefit of readers who may not have at hand the previous volumes of the Document Catalogue, the following statements are made relative to the style of expressing titles of documents or reports. When a document has a title-page or a distinctive heading, the wording of the catalogue entry follows exactly the order of words contained therein. Words are omitted without indicating the omission in any way; but if insertions are made, or the order of words altered, such changes are indicated by brackets. Committee reports have no titles, and for these reports the catalogue entry follows a conventional wording incorporating the distinctive title of the bill or joint resolution on which the report is made. Simple and concurrent resolutions have no titles, therefore catalogue entries for reports on them are made up so as to give the subject matter of the report. When a title is amended in committee, the amended title is chosen. A conventional wording is used for titles of pension reports and a few others.

The date used in entries for Congressional documents, if year, month, and day are specified, refers to the date when the document was ordered printed; but if the year only is specified, it refers to the time of publication. Unless otherwise indicated annual reports are designated by fiscal years, which always end with June 30 of each calendar year. The date of the fiscal year covered by an annual report is followed by the date of publication, when the two dates are not the same; if they are the same, the date of publication is omitted. In citing an annual report the fiscal year covered by the report is used, and not the year of publication.

The compilation of this catalogue was begun under the supervision of Miss Mary A. Hartwell and finished under that of Miss Alice C. Fichtenkam.

Superintendent of Documents.

Topographic sheets.

Note.—These maps, here issued separately, appear again in the folios of the Geologic Atlas, and also serve as bases of the geologic maps. They are successive steps in the topographic mapping of the whole United States. Each sheet covers a quadrangular section of country bounded by parallels and meridians, and is named from some prominent feature of the section. The scales used, 1:125,000, 1:250,000, correspond approximately to 1 mile, 2 miles, and 4 miles to the linear inch. The width, always given second, varies with the latitude from 11½ to 16 inches. A description of the topographic map is printed on the reverse of each sheet, unless otherwise stated.
