ADAM HALL.

FEBRUARY 22, 1837.

Read, and the resolution therein contained concurred in by the House.

Mr. RUSSELL, from the Committee of Claims, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee of Claims, to which was referred the petition of Adam Hall, praying compensation for horses lost in the service of the United States, during the war with the Creek Indians, respectfully report:

That a general law has been passed during the session of the present Congress, by which the Third Auditor is authorized to adjust claims of this description, which supersedes the necessity of special legislation; the committee, therefore, without further examination into the merits of this claim than to ascertain that it is properly referrible to that office, propose, for the consideration of the House, the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee of Claims be discharged from the further consideration of the petition of Adam Hall; and that, with the documents accompanying the same, it be referred to the Third Auditor for examination.
