LOYAL SEMINOLE ROLLS AND LOSSES.

LETTER

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR,

TRANSMITTING,

IN RESPONSE TO RESOLUTION OF THE SENATE OF JANUARY 17, 1899, COPIES OF THE LOYAL SEMINOLE ROLLS AND THE REPORT OF THE COMMISSIONERS APPOINTED TO INVESTIGATE SEMINOLE LOSSES.

JANUARY 23, 1899.—Referred to the Committee on Indian Affairs, and ordered to be printed.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Washington, January 20, 1899.

SIR: On January 18 the Department received the resolution of the Senate of the United States dated 17th instant, as follows:

Whereas by article four of the treaty of March twenty-first, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, with the Seminole Nation of Indians, the Secretary of the Interior was authorized to investigate and determine the losses sustained by loyal Seminoles during the war of the rebellion; and

Whereas by the agreement of December sixteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, with said nation it was and is provided as follows: "The loyal Seminole claim shall be submitted to the United States Senate, which shall make final determination of the same, and, if sustained, shall provide for payment thereof within two years from date thereof." Therefore,

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and is hereby, requested to furnish the Senate with a copy of the roll of said loyal Seminoles, and also a copy of the report of the commissioners appointed by him to investigate and determine said losses, in pursuance of the said treaty of eighteen hundred and sixty-six. And be it further

Resolved, That the Committee on Indian Affairs be, and is hereby, instructed to investigate the matter, in accordance with said treaty and agreement, and report by bill or otherwise, its conclusions to the Senate, with such recommendations as may be deemed advisable.

Said resolution was duly referred to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs for early report in duplicate. In compliance with said resolution, I now have the honor to transmit copies of the loyal Seminole rolls and the report of the commissioners appointed to investigate Seminole losses.

Respectfully,

C. N. BLISS, Secretary.

The PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, November 26, 1867.

SIR: The undersigned, a commission by appointment of the Secretary of the Interior, under the authority of the fourth article of the treaty of the 21st March, 1866, between the United States and the Seminole Indians, "to adjudge and determine the claims of loyal Seminoles for losses actually sustained by reason of their having remained loyal and faithful to their treaty stipulations to the United States during the recent rebellion," etc., respectfully report that having received our instructions, we immediately started for the Seminole country.

By appointment of the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs, it was arranged that the commission should meet in the city of St. Louis, Mo., on the 14th of August. The undersigned were prompt in their meeting, but failed to meet a third commissioner, of whose appointment we had been duly advised. We waited a reasonable time for his appearance, then telegraphed the Department for instructions, and received an answer authorizing us "to wait one day longer, and if he did not appear, then we should proceed and execute our mission without him." Acting upon our instructions, we promptly left St. Louis and proceeded by the most direct and expeditious route to the field of our labors. After a fatiguing trip, made long by the modes of travel incident to the far West, we reached the Seminole Agency on the night of the 9th of September, and on the morning following we began our duties.

Upon our arrival we found the northern portion of the Seminoles in council, and at once put ourselves in communication with them, making known our business, and thus giving the "public notice" required by the terms of our instructions, which notice was promptly disseminated among the people of the nation by the chief and headmen of the different bands. We also communicated with John Jumper, a chief residing with the southern portion of the Seminoles at the old agency, distant 50 miles, and requested that he would make known our arrival and business among that portion of the Seminole people. In due time we received his acknowledgment, which, with a copy of our letter, is herewith transmitted.

It will be seen by reference to some of the claims that the claimants have put in for loss of guns; also for loss of cash (gold and silver coin). In the instance of a loss of guns, we have, through witnesses, satisfied ourselves that the claimants carried a gun off with them at the time of leaving home, and only allowed for guns when the claimant carried away one or more and had to leave others behind.

In the item of cash, occurring in some of the claims, we have made our investigations as full as possible, always satisfying ourselves through witnesses that the claimant actually possessed said money and lost it on account of the disturbed condition of the country in consequence of the rebellion. In every such case the money was lost at the Budd Creek fight, occurring on the night of the 25th of December, 1861, while the claimant was endeavoring to escape from the rebel forces then overrunning the Seminole country.

These loyal Indians had successfully beaten the rebels in two previous fights, but on the 25th of December they were surprised in camp and many massacred, and lost all their effects. We are of opinion that the claimants are entitled to include said item in their bill of losses, as much so as if the loss had been in cattle, especially so when we consider that their best efforts were exhausted to prevent its loss.

Our investigations were thorough in each case, especially as regarded the amounts and the estimates or prices therefor; we obtained reliable information from disinterested persons of prices ruling the market in the Seminole country at the breaking out of the war, and in our awards governed ourselves accordingly. We are satisfied that the prices allowed the claimants are reasonable and just, certainly not too high.

We held our sessions as a board from day to day, and neither commissioner transacted any business in the absence of the other. We received much valuable assistance in our investigations from the chief, John Chupeo, and the headmen of the various bands; also from Robert Johnson, interpreter.

In our expenditures for expenses we were as economical as circumstances would allow, and feel warranted in saying that we incurred no bills, chargeable to the Government, except such as were necessary to the proper discharge of our duties.

During our labors we examined and determined 340 claims, amounting in the aggregate to $213,915.95.

Respectfully submitted.

J. TYLER POWELL,
J. W. CALDWELL,
Commissioners.

Hon. O. H. BROWNING,
Secretary of the Interior.
