SHOWING

The amount required to carry into effect the Kansas treaty, and to negotiate a treaty with the Chippewa and other Indians.

APRIL 20, 1846.

Ordered to be printed.

WAR DEPARTMENT, April 15, 1846.

SIR: In compliance with your request, I have the honor to transmit herewith a report of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, containing an estimate of the amount required to carry into effect the provisions of the treaty with the Kansas Indians of the 14th of January, 1846, and also of a sum to meet the expenses of negotiating a treaty with the Chippewa, Ottawa, and Pottawatomie Indians, for their lands north and east of the Missouri river.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

W. L. MARCY,
Secretary of War.

HON. A. H. SEVIER,
Chairman Committee Indian Affairs, United States Senate.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Office Indian Affairs, April 15, 1846.

SIR: I have the honor to lay before you, in compliance with the verbal request of the Chairman of the Committee on Indian Affairs of the Senate, communicated through the Hon. A. C. Dodge, an estimate of the amount required to carry into effect the provisions of the treaty with the Kansas Indians of the 14th January, 1846, ratified at the present session of Congress; and likewise of a sum necessary to meet the expenses of negotiating a treaty with the Chippewa, Ottawa, and Pottawatomie Indians, for the lands held by them north and east of the Missouri river.

Should the estimate meet your approbation, permit me to request that it may be submitted to the committee above mentioned for its favorable consideration and action thereon.

Very respectfully, your most obedient servant,

W. MEDILL.

HON. W. L. MARCY,
Secretary of War.
