Report No. 785.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

ROBERT PERRY.

JULY 19, 1848.

Laid upon the table.

Mr. STRONG, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made the following

REPORT :

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Robert Perry, report:

That the allegations of the petitioner are entirely unsupported by proof, and even if they were sustained they do not present a case calling for the interference of Congress. No provision has ever been made by law for those who served in the Indian wars, under General Wayne and others, and until pensions shall be granted by general law, your committee are of opinion that it would be inexpedient to pass an act making provision for an individual case. They, therefore, ask to be discharged from the further consideration of the petition.
