Mr. TIPTON made the following

REPORT.

[To accompany bill S. No. 1005.]

In the matter of the application of Julia Traynor for a pension, it appears, from the statement of General George Crook, that her husband died March, 1868, of wounds received in battle with Indians at Infernal Caverns, Oregon, the said General Crook being in command. Had the husband of the applicant been instantly killed in battle, her right to a pension would be unquestioned. But the equity of the case arises from death resulting from wounds.
