REPORTS TO BE MADE TO CONGRESS.

LETTER FROM THE CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, TRANSMITTING A LIST OF REPORTS TO BE MADE TO CONGRESS BY PUBLIC OFFICERS.

JULY 22, 1897.—Ordered to be printed.

CLERK'S OFFICE, HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Washington, D. C., July 15, 1897.

SIR: In compliance with a standing rule of the House of Representatives, I have the honor to submit herewith a list of reports to be made to Congress by public officers during the first session of the Fifty-fifth Congress.

Very respectfully,

A. MCDOWELL,
Clerk House of Representatives.

Hon. THOMAS B. REED,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

LIST
OF
REPORTS TO BE MADE TO CONGRESS
AT THE
FIRST SESSION OF THE FIFTY-FIFTH CONGRESS,
BY PUBLIC OFFICERS.

[PREPARED IN OBEDIENCE TO A STANDING RULE OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.]

Officer, and nature of the report.	By what authority.	Section or page.	When expected to be made.
BY THE HEAD OF EACH DEPARTMENT.
A detailed statement of the manner in which the contingent fund of his Department, and for the bureau and officers therein, has been expended, giving the names of every person to whom any portion thereof has been paid, and if for anything furnished, the quantity and price; and if for any service rendered, the nature of such service, and the time employed, and the particular occasion or cause, in brief, that rendered such service necessary; and the amount of all former appropriations, in each case on hand either in the Treasury or in the hands of any disbursing officer or agent; and he shall require of the disbursing officers, acting under his direction or authority, the return of precise and analytical statements and receipts for all the money which may have been, from time to time, during the next preceding year, expended by them.	Rev. Stat Stat. L., v. 18.....	sec. 193 p. 96	Annually. At the beginning of each regular session.
A report of the names of the clerks and other persons that have been employed in his Department and the officers thereof, stating the time that each clerk or other person was actually employed and the sums paid to each; also whether they have been usefully employed; whether the services of any of them can be dispensed with without detriment to the public service, and whether the removal of any individuals and the appointment of others in their stead is required for the better dispatch of business.	Rev. Stat	sec. 194	Annually.
NOTE.—The heads of Departments, in communicating estimates of expenditures and appropriations to Congress, or to any of the committees thereof, shall specify, as nearly as may be convenient, the sources from which such estimates are derived and the calculations upon which they are founded, and shall discriminate between such estimates as are conjectural in their character and such as are framed upon actual information and applications from disbursing officers. They shall also give references to any law or treaty by which the proposed expenditures are, respectively, authorized, specifying the date of each and the volume and page of the Statutes at Large or of the Revised Statutes, as the case may be, and the section of the act in which the authority is to be found.

Officer, and nature of the report.	By what authority.	Section or page.	When expected to be made.
BY THE HEAD OF EACH DEPARTMENT—cont'd.
Whenever the head of a Department, being about to submit to Congress the annual estimates of expenditures required for the coming year, finds that the usual items of such estimates vary materially in amount from the appropriation ordinarily asked for the object named, and especially from the appropriation granted for the same objects for the preceding year, and whenever new items not theretofore usual are introduced into such estimates for any year, he shall accompany the estimates by minute and full explanations of all such variations and new items, showing the reasons and grounds upon which the amounts are required, and the different items added.
The head of each Department in submitting to Congress his estimates of expenditures required in his Department during the year then approaching shall designate not only the amount required to be appropriated for the next fiscal year, but also the amount of the outstanding appropriation, if there be any, which will probably be required for each particular item of expenditure.
Except when a different time is expressly prescribed by law the various annual reports required to be submitted to Congress by the heads of Departments shall be made at the commencement of each regular session and shall embrace the transactions of the preceding year.	Rev. Stat.	sec. 195
