IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

MAY 5, 1896.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. GALLINGER, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany H. R. 4122.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 4122) granting an increase of pension to James H. Jones, have examined the same, and report:

The report of the Committee on Invalid Pensions of the House of Representatives, hereto appended, is adopted, and the passage of the bill is recommended.

HOUSE REPORT.

The claimant served from May 9, 1836, to September 2, 1836, as a private in Captain Urquhart's company of Georgia volunteers in the Florida Indian war, and he is now receiving, under certificate 1470, the pension of $8 per month allowed by the Indian war act of July 27, 1892.

Mr. Jones is now about 83 years of age, in a helpless condition physically, and wholly dependent upon his small pension for support. He and his aged wife are both almost totally deaf, and they have an invalid daughter, who is dependent upon them for maintenance.

In view of the above facts, your committee recommend the passage of the bill.
